Skinny Skribbles

Around And About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

C. D. Lindsey is in receipt of a clipping from Phil Danky re: discovery by Ed Durling that Santa Ana needs a new depot. On a former occasion to this city Danky also made a discovery, that higher earnings were needed. Two very important discoveries have now been archeologized, and must have careful and expert scrutiny to determine which should come first. If the earnings are not elevated Danky is likely to get his black knocked off, and if we do not get a new depot there is likely to be an epidemic of sore eyes. The issues are too serious for superficial determination. Help! Help!

Somewhat delayed in transit but entitled to a spot in the "thin file," is the card of Kenny Morrison who wants to be judge of superior court dept. 2. Posting has been done and another legal luminary now shines in the gallery of candidates. Let's we forget—this service closes Aug. 29th.

It would have required a blow-torch to extinguish the number of lighted candles, which exerted such an effluence that Edison got a shock for his money. Non-resident owner of an almond grove somewhere in California received a report from the caretaker that the crop this season was about a third less than normal, and if the hot weather did not dry up the meats, or the birds or squirrels get 'em, he thought after the expense of harvesting was met the owner might be able to borrow enough money to pay the taxes.

It's always been my understanding of the game that there couldn't be a new deal until there had been a misdeal. It's the same old deck, but in a new deal you get a different hand. The only trouble with so many deals is that if you anti every time you may run out of money.

Nazi Spy Net Work Charged

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The house committee investigating un-American activities heard testimony today that Hans Luther, long-time German ambassador here, lost his job because he did not cooperate fully with the German-American bund, a Nazi organization.

John C. Metcalfe, German-born committee investigator, said he was told this by Fritz Kuhn, bund leader who accepted Metcalfe into membership and hired him for a speaking tour.

During this tour, particularly in Los Angeles, Metcalfe said, local bund members complained of lack of full cooperation with German consuls, particularly in obtaining storm trooper uniforms.

Kuhn flew into a rage when this was reported back to him, Metcalfe recounted, and declared:

"What's the matter with them? I've removed Hans Luther. I have secret relations with Germany whereby I can get anything I want. These consuls will be removed and we'll get the kind of consuls there we want."

Dr. Hans Dieckhoff is the present ambassador from Germany.

"At least 90 per cent of the German-American element in the United States is absolutely opposed to the activities of the German-American bund and everything it stands for," Metcalfe told the committee when asked his opinion as to the extent of the bund's influence.

He estimated, however, there were 80 posts of German-American bunds scattered over the country, have a direct membership of 25,000 and an indirect strength of 500,000 persons.

He used the larger number to meet Dies' request that it include "the German-American bund, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

'See U. S. First' Says Corrigan; Route a Puzzle

NEW YORK. (AP)—Douglas Corrigan took a notebook and pencil with him today and pondered a bewildering itinerary of cities wanting to give him a reception.

The 31-year-old "wrong way" flier shook his head and grinned despairingly.

"See America first, all right," he said, outside his hangar at Roosevelt field, Long Island. "But it'll take me a month of Sundays to do it."

Ex-Wife Beats Bogart to Altar

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Humphrey Bogart, who alternately plays bad man and officer of the law roles in the films, was beaten to the altar in a matrimonial race with his ex-wife, Mary Phillips Bogart, today.

While she was being married by a justice of the peace in Greenwich, Conn., today her husband filed a notice of intention to wed May Jane Mass. They set the wedding date for Aug. 20.

The Bogarts' interlocutory divorce, obtained a year ago, became final only four days ago.

Miss Phillips was married to Leo Mielziner, author and actor, one of Kay Francis' former husbands.

Impounded Funds At Stake in Court

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The government asked the supreme court today to decide whether $588,000 impounded by a lower court in the long-ill-fated Kansas City Stockyard case belongs to the farmers or the commission men.

The sum represents the difference between rates charged by the commission men and rates found in 1933 by Secretary Wallace to be "reasonable" for the service given.

Government counsel appealed from a decision of the western Missouri federal district court which ordered the money returned to the commission men.

Plane Completes Surprise Hop

New Yorkers got their first glimpse of the German "Brandenburg" late yesterday when it landed at Floyd Bennett field (above), after completing a surprise flight across the Atlantic. The plane left in advance of its scheduled flight and was well over the ocean before it was known to be in the air. The 19-ton craft carried a crew of four on the 3942-mile flight, making the distance in 24 hours, 54 minutes, Berlin to New York. No passengers were aboard.

JIMMY BARES INCOME DATA

NEW YORK. (AP)—"Jimmy" Roosevelt threw the long-discussed matter of his income before the American public today and declared in incisive terms that it was much smaller than a lot of people thought.

In a biting interview with Associated Editor Walter Davenport published in Collier's magazine, the President's son and secretary flatly denied writer Alva Johnston's intimation in a recent Saturday Evening Post article that he made from $250,000 to $2,000,000 a year in the insurance business and used political pressure on prospective clients.

Young Roosevelt produced income tax records showing that from 1933 to 1937, inclusive, his income ranged from $27,714 to $49,167 annually, totalling $172,978 for the five years.

"Since I have been my father's secretary, since I have been in Washington," he said in the interview, "I have not solicited nor attempted to solicit—no, and I haven't accepted—a single dollar of insurance from anyone, any time, anywhere. Anything to the contrary is a miserable lie."

He went to Washington last year at a salary of $10,000, said, he resigned from the Boston insurance firm of Roosevelt and Sargent but continued to receive dividends on business he had helped place.

During his insurance selling days, he acknowledged, "I got into places I never would have if I wasn't the son of the President. But, son or no son, I got tossed out of a lot, too."

Market Regains Early Losses

NEW YORK. (AP)—Wall street recovered partially today from a spell of nervousness over European affairs, spotlighted by another rush for gold and American dollars in London.

On a late rally, the stock market recouped part of the losses suffered on a heavy wave of selling earlier in the day.

Down $1 to more than $3 at the height of the decline, many stocks regained half or more of the losses.

European exchange rates also stiffened against the dollar and Chicago grain prices made a firmer stand when the selling passed its crest.

Husband Drunk at 5 A. M., Charge

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The 20-year-old wife of Walter L. Abernathy, 76, wealthy former Kansas City resident, obtained a divorce today after telling Judge Charles E. Haas that her mate would arise at 5 a. m., start drinking, and be intoxicated all day.

Judge Haas approved a lump sum settlement of $1350 after remarking he thought it was "inadequate from a man who receives $20,000 a year from a trust fund."

'Arrest Me!' Challenges Governor, Accused Of Bribery; Holds Up Trip

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Governor George H. Earle, demanding that District Attorney Carl B. Shelley arrest him on charges filed in last spring's Democratic primary, today postponed for 24 hours a projected 10,000-mile airplane trip—to await the results of his challenge.

The delay, Earle said, would give "Shelley a chance to serve me with a warrant and back up his charges—if he wants to." Shelley is directing a proposed grand jury investigation.

The governor, accused along with 13 associates of bribery, blackmail and political coercion, hurried the challenge in a radio speech last night. He expressed confidence "the officials charged will be vindicated."

Throwing Bricks Is Board's Job; Youth Arrested

Many a brick have county supervisors figuratively thrown at the county welfare department, but now it develops they're jealous about their prerogative.

Because Claude Hopkins, 20, 401 East Sixth street, did it this week—literally, not figuratively—and Supervisor Steele Finley objected.

Hopkins was arraigned in justice court this morning on a charge of malicious mischief. Finley, complaining witness, accused him of hurling bricks and stones at welfare department windows. His aim was good, Finley said.

The youth pleaded guilty before Judge Kenneth Morrison, and pronouncement of judgment was set for Monday.

BLAST ROCKS S. BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO. (AP)—A terrific explosion rocked the Peoples Furniture store early today and fire, spreading from the blast, caused $150,000 damage to buildings at the intersection of Fourth and D streets.

Embers and ashes were scattered over the entire downtown business district. Fire Chief E. E. Leffen said the fire was the "fastest burning in my 30 years of experience in the department."

Firemen quelled smaller blazes in adjoining buildings that were ignited by the flying embers.

Buildings gutted by the flames were owned by the estate of R. C. Harrison, noted California editor, and Perry H. Green of San Bernardino.

Chief Leffen said the fire is believed to have started from spontaneous combustion in the furniture store's finishing department. The explosion shattered windows throughout the structure.

Typhoon Grounds Chinese Steamer

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Globe Wireless said today its Manila station picked up the message relayed by H.M.S. Cumberland, a British warship:

"S.S. Haikong grounded off Tungchow due to severe typhoon. Flashed S.O.S. at 10:30 Manila time tonight."

The Cumberland said the Haikong's call letters were not registered.

Arson Trial Set Oct. 24

Trial of Margaret M. Davis on arson charges in connection with a fire that destroyed her home and beauty parlor, was set for Oct. 24 before Superior Judge H. G. Ames, following her arraignment in superior court this morning.

Mrs. Davis pleaded not guilty to the charge. She has been at liberty on $2500 bond.

DELAY RETURN OF BIG PLANE

NEW YORK. (AP)—Minor damage to the propeller and an engine cowl of the 19-ton German plane Brandenburg delayed today the start of the huge ship's homeward flight across the Atlantic ocean.

A quick turn-around trip had been planned, but this idea was dropped soon after the four-man crew brought the 24-passenger transport skimming into Floyd Bennett field yesterday at the end of a record-breaking trip from Berlin. It was the first east-west linking of Berlin and New York, and the 3942 miles were covered in 24 hours, 54 minutes.

Spouting oil betrayed the damage as the plane rolled to a stop. Alfred Henke, blond and taciturn captain of the Brandenburg's crew, said the damage was trivial and that, "if necessary, the plane could have started home immediately."

But there was no rush and New York had shown them such a "splendid welcome," he said, that the fliers wanted to stay "a day or two."

Henke would not commit himself on the hour of a takeoff, but, "in any case," he said, it would not be today.

Henke and his flying mates, Rudolph Von Moreau, co-pilot; Paul Dierberg, flight engineer, and Fritz Kober, radio operator, were completely casual about the flight.

"We expected to make the trip in something like 24 or 26 hours," Henke commented, "and now we've done it."

The Brandenburg made the unheralded flight as a demonstration of Germany's readiness to institute mail and passenger service between Germany and the United States. Henke pointed out, however, that oceanic passenger flight in such ships as the four-motored low-winged Brandenburg probably would be impractical because of the big fuel load necessary.

"We could not have carried more than two more persons," he said.

Oldest Grocer Dies in Maine

WEST SCARBORO, Me. (AP)—Albert A. Cole, 84, who claimed to be the nation's oldest active grocer and who once lamented with President Roosevelt that the day of the small country store was fading, died at his home here today.

"How's business?" President Roosevelt greeted the white-haired, keen-eyed grocer at the nation's capital in 1937.

Afterwards, Cole said he liked the President. "He wasn't like strange folks," he remarked.

Hurricane Howls Near Cuban Coast

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The weather bureau reported a small "but very dangerous" hurricane was centered this afternoon about 175 miles south of Pinar Del Rio, Cuba.

"Indications are that it will pass through the Yucatan channel tonight," said a 3 p. m. advisory.

The bureau said the storm had continued to move west-northwestward at the rapid rate of 18 to 20 miles an hour.

"Caution advised ships in path and all other interests extreme Western Cuba, northeastern Yucatan and adjacent waters," the bureau said. "This is a small storm but very dangerous."

Clear Hollingberry In Traffic Death

OAKLAND. (AP)—An automobile which policeman Norman Oehm said was driven by Orin "Babe" Hollingberry, football coach of Washington state college, struck and killed William Melchior, 63, on Foothill boulevard here early today.

Hollingberry was exonerated after Oehm said witnesses told him Melchior, a car cleaner for the Sacramento Northern railway, was "jaywalking" at the time of the accident.

Murder Trial Sent To Jury

SOUTH PARIS, Me. (AP)—The fate of former Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll, on trial for the murder of elderly Dr. James G. Littlefield, was placed in the jury's hands at 2:14 p. m. (E.S.T.) today.

In closing arguments whether Carroll murdered Dr. Littlefield to conceal "unfathomable acts" toward his own daughter, Barbara, 18, or whether that murder was committed by Paul N. Dwyer, 19, Barbara's former sweetheart and Carroll's chief accuser.

Special Prosecutor Ralph M. Ingalls contended evidence showed Carroll strangled Dr. Littlefield, to silence him, after Dwyer informed the physician of letters from the girl accusing her father of improper conduct.

Defense Counsel Clyde R. Chapman ridiculed the state's case, asserting evidence showed Dwyer killed both the physician and his wife.

Bodies of both were in an automobile in which Dwyer, asleep, was arrested at North Arlington, N. J., last autumn, a few days after the crime.

Dwyer at first took full responsibility, but later, retracting, testified as the prosecution's star witness that he confessed only because he feared Carroll.

Unexpectedly, both defense and prosecution dispensed with rebuttal testimony, and Carroll's daughter, Barbara, 18, never took the witness stand.

Life imprisonment is the maximum penalty for murder in Maine.

In his closing argument, Ingalls told the jury, that behind the physician's murder was the "unfathomable acts of a father."

"Carroll hasn't denied it," continued the prosecutor, "and at no time has that daughter been produced to say her father was not guilty."

The state contended Paul N. Dwyer, 19, who, at a previous trial, pleaded guilty to slaying the physician and his wife and accepted a life sentence, showed Dr. Littlefield letters from Barbara in which she accused her father of seduction. Retracting his confession, Dwyer became the state's chief witness at Carroll's trial.

Carroll listened to the prosecution's scathing words, head up, immovable.

A few seats behind him sat Barbara and her mother, listening intently.

"Whether the two men (Carroll and Dwyer) worked in concord or not," Ingalls argued, "the result was the death of Dr. Littlefield."

Morgan Hinted 'Gyp' Testimony

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A witness testified today he had been named Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, ousted TVA chairman, once suspected his associates in the authority of collusion to "gyp the government" in the Berry marble case.

Charles G. Mynatt, associate TVA attorney, said his information came from W. N. Garrett, who represented Dr. Morgan in investigating marble leases bought by Sen. George L. Berry (D, Tenn.) and his associates in the Morris dam area.

The TVA succeeded in having the leases condemned as "commercially worthless."

100 Warplanes Bomb Chiang's Headquarters

SHANGHAI. (AP)—A Japanese naval communique tonight announced more than 100 Japanese warplanes had carried out a spectacularly successful raid on the Hankow headquarters of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The announcement declared the raid was "100 per cent effective" in attacking military establishments and railways at Hankow and Wuchang as well as the generalissimo's headquarters. Japanese estimated 500 casualties resulted.

As the raid came, tension born of terrorism gripped Shanghai, which awaited with dread the anniversary tomorrow of the outbreak of Chinese-Japanese fighting in Shanghai.

No Chinese planes took to the air in defense of China's provisional capital and its nearby sister city.

(Hankow dispatches said Japanese aerial raiders set fire to oil tanks belonging to an American concern, but because of the attack's fury, exact ownership could not be determined.)

Heavy damage was said by the Japanese to have been inflicted on the Hankow and Wuchang railway stations, a clothing bureau and the headquarters of the Chinese army's second and fourth divisions.

Japanese warplanes also penetrated Kiangsi province, in southern China, and heavily bombed Wuchow, river port 120 miles west of Canton.

The raiders, continuing the fulfillment of Tuesday's threat of ten consecutive days of attacks, concentrated on buildings of Wuchow university and military headquarters after two bombardments of north Canton and the Canton railway.

Kwangsi, a province of 77,220 square miles and rich in minerals and forests, hitherto has been virtually untouched by air attacks that have spread death and destruction in many parts of China. Today's forays were taken to indicate the Japanese mean to broaden such activities in southern China.

northern island off the Siberian coast. The Japanese foreign office, meanwhile, released an abridged text of the third truce conference between Maxim Litvinoff, Russian commissar of foreign affairs, and Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japanese ambassador to Russia.

Shigemitsu told Litvinoff at their meeting in Moscow.

Shigemitsu proposed that the "two forces cease hostilities by withdrawing about one kilometer (1/2 of a mile) from the disputed line so that they will be beyond range of rifle fire and then begin the boundary demarcation."

The text said Litvinoff agreed that Japanese forces "withdraw from the line they now occupy, claiming that it lies within Manchoukuo and that the area thus evacuated will not be entered by either side," thus not prejudicing Japan's claim.

But, it added, he refused to agree to "withdrawal of Soviet troops from Soviet territory at the demand of a foreign power."

They agreed to the suspension of hostilities about Changkufeng hill and the surrounding area, which Japan says is part of Manchoukuo and Russia says is part of Russian Siberia, and to cooperation in removing bodies in the area between the opposing lines. They arranged a second conference at noon today to exchange written documents.

Two Slayers Of G-Men Executed By U. S. In Leavenworth

ONE GUNMAN SLEEPS UP TO HOUR OF DEATH

LEAVENWORTH, Kans. (AP)—Robert Suhay and Glenn Applegate, New York gunmen convicted of murdering W. W. Barker, federal bureau of investigation agent, were hanged at the federal penitentiary here early today in the first double execution in Kansas in more than 70 years.

Applegate went to his death with the same indifference that has characterized his stay in prison. Suhay gritted his teeth and was making an obvious effort to control himself as he mounted the 13 steps of the gallows.

Among the 27 witnesses were H. H. Baker, Yuma, Ariz., attorney, father of the slain FBI agent, and B. B. Baker, his 18-year-old son.

Guards entering the cell block found Applegate asleep.

He refused to converse with the prison chaplain with the assertion "you'll have to go a hell of a long way to visit with me."

After the ropes were adjusted, Applegate turned to Suhay and said:

"Let's shake and go together." Suhay made no response.

Both the 45-year-old Applegate and Suhay, 26, refused to receive spiritual advisers.

"You can't do me any good. All of my friends are in hell," Applegate said.

When Ray Buschhausen, deputy U. S. Marshal, appeared with the death warrant, Applegate said:

"The scaffold can't be too high nor the time too quick for me."

Baker was slain April 16, 1937, when Suhay and Applegate shot their way out of a trap set in the Topeka postoffice by federal agents who sought them in connection with the robbery of a Katoanah, N. Y., bank. Suhay was shot in the wrist.

They were arrested that night by Sheriff Homer Sylvester of Plattsmouth, Neb., and his brother, Cass, without firing a shot after Suhay and Applegate had made a wild, desperate ride and kidnapped a doctor to treat Suhay's wound.

Both Suhay and Applegate had long criminal records and were on parole when Baker was slain.

Both Baker and his son appeared emotionless as they watched the executions.

After Suhay and Applegate were pronounced dead the elder Baker said:

"I am satisfied the law has taken its course. The men got what they needed. I appreciate the efforts of all who aided in bringing them to justice. They killed a mighty fine boy for no reason at all."

GERMANY ON WAR BASIS AS DRILLS NEAR

BERLIN. (AP)—Nazi Germany is on virtually a war-time footing as the time for annual autumn war maneuvers nears.

Nationwide preparations are proceeding at top speed for a type of maneuvers to be used by Germany for the first time since the World War—creation of entirely new units for training reserves in six to 10 weeks.

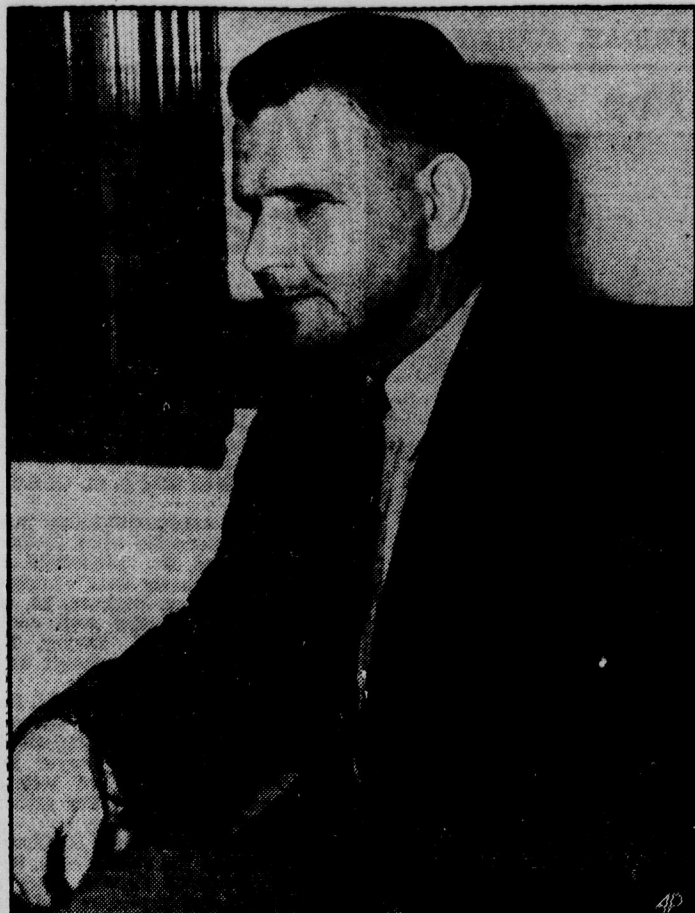

Military observers were unable to estimate the number of troops involved in the fall war games because the maneuvers are to occur sectionally, rather than in one massed display, and there is no precedent for figuring the extent.

(Alarmed by foreign reports of extensive German military preparations, France today ordered her diplomats abroad to send to Paris all available information concerning the maneuvers.)

Reports from Munich said Bavarians were disturbed by military preparations along the German-Czechoslovak frontier. In that region army authorities requisitioned automobiles, trucks, furniture vans and municipal vans for military use.

Authorities assured Bavarians that the preparations were for the usual fall maneuvers.

Revises Testimony

Former Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll, charged with the slaying of Dr. James G. Littlefield, returned to the witness stand in the South Paris, Me., courtroom to revise testimony he had given earlier. He is accused by Paul N. Dwyer, 19, of committing the murder of which Dwyer had previously confessed and had been sentenced to life. Carroll is shown as he testified. Final arguments were heard today.

PEDDLER FREE IN SLAYING

CHICAGO. (AP)—William Melnechuck, whose application for a peddler's license led to his arrest on a 13-year-old murder charge, was made a free man today.

Melnechuck was arrested in Santa Barbara, Calif., last March. Prosecutors charged he was the last of five men who killed Frank Rodkey, Drake hotel cashier, in a robbery in Chicago July 29, 1925.

Two of the robbers were slain during the holdup and two others later were caught and hanged. They named Melnechuck as their accomplice.

The prisoner denied any part in the slaying and robbery and his California friends rallied to his aid with funds to fight the charge.

Assistant State's Attorney Francis McCurrie withdrew the charge today, declaring the lapse of time had made it impossible to find witnesses or convincing evidence.

SEEK TO STOP PICKET LAW

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—A petition for a writ of mandate to restrain Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan from including a measure dealing with picketing on the November ballot was filed with the state supreme court today by Edward D. Vandeleur, secretary of the state federation of labor.

Vandeleur asked the writ on the grounds the measure's inclusion on the ballot would mean an unnecessary expense to the state and also because it was contrary to law. He also claimed the title did not set forth the chief purposes of the act.

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—RKO Radio Pictures Corp. said today it is planning for the biggest production year in its history—54 features and 199 short subjects during 1938-39.

SPY RING CHARGED IN INVESTIGATION

Silver Shirts, Black Shirts, Fascists and their sympathizers."

About 100,000 attended bund meetings regularly and openly, the investigation added.

Metcalfe testified that headquarters for the Silver Shirts was at Asheville, N. C., where a weekly publication, "The Silverator," was published.

The investigator said copies of this could be obtained by writing to Germany.

Metcalfe said the real purpose of the Nazi movement in the United States was threefold:

1. To establish a vast spy network.

2. To form a powerful sabotage machine.

3. To develop the present bund group into an organization encompassing as many German-Americans as possible.

The bund, he said, is always keeping in mind the possibility of war and what it could do to help Germany in such an event.

"It must be born in mind that in 1916, prior to the entrance of the United States into the World War, Germany had practically no espionage organization or sabotage machine in this country. It is to avoid a duplication of this mistake that the bund has become active."

"One of the principal means of bringing this about has been the establishment by the Nazis in Stuttgart, Germany, of the Auslands bureau, which is the foreign institute. This institute at the present time is manned in Stuttgart by men who were former leaders of the Nazi movement in this country, some of whom have even taken out citizenship papers."

Metcalfe, a short, dark man wearing a mustache similar to that of Adolf Hitler, said he was born in Dresden, Germany, and came to this country in 1914.

He was first of four witnesses who Chairman Dies (D., Tex.) said would expose widespread activities of Nazi groups in the United States.

Swing 'Violent' Says Irene Castle

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Irene Castle McLaughlin, queen of ballroom dancers in pre-war days, is only an amused spectator now when jitterbugs swing it.

"These modern dances," she said today, "are too violent; they're overheating. Extreme dances don't last long."

INDEPENDENT RACE URGED FOR POPE

BOISE, Idaho. (AP)—Supporters of Senator James P. Pope, ardent New Dealer defeated by Congressman D. Worth Clark in the primary, suggested today an independent campaign to elect Idaho's junior senator next Nov. 8.

The group charged in a prepared statement that the Republicans "stole the election" and that the Democratic nomination for United States senator from Mr. Pope and gave it to Congressman Clark.

Senator Pope said he had "no comment" to make.

"But for this theft of the election, return show Pope would have secured the nomination by nearly two to one of the Democratic votes," the statement issued by Pope supporters read.

It was signed among others by former Attorney General Frank Martin, Boise lawyer; D. L. Evans of Merad, member of the state water conservation board; and former district Judge James R. Bothwell of Twin Falls.

The primary was the first under Idaho's new election law, and both Republican and Democratic tickets were printed on the same ballot. Voters were not required to announce their party affiliation. Both before and after the primary there was considerable discussion of possible shifts in party lines.

Should Pope decide to stage an independent campaign, he could do so under Idaho law.

His opponents would be Congress Clark, Conservative Democrat; V. A. Verhel, Progressive candidate, and Donald Callahan, Republican candidate.

RADIO RESCUES 40-FT. CRUISER

Radio came to the rescue of Ed Gronendyke, Pasadena, last night when his 40-ft. sport cruiser developed engine trouble about eight miles off Balboa.

From the cruiser, Mahi-Mahi, Gronendyke contacted by radio the harbor master, Tom Bouchey, who sent Steve Smith to the rescue in a motorboat. There was an offshore wind, but Gronendyke, who was making a trip from San Diego, was in no great danger.

WILLIAM VANDIFORD knows tobacco from seedling to cigarette. His cigarette is Camel! "Over and over," he says, "Camel has bought my best tobacco. Of course I smoke Camels!"

DAVID ELMER WELLS, TOBACCO GROWER

GROWER JOHN DURHAM, JR. (above) is enjoying real smoking pleasure. Yes, it's a Camel. As Mr. Durham states, "I see the tobacco that cigarette companies buy. Camel buyers pay more to get the best of my own crops and of my friends. It's Camels for us!"

S. J. BONE CONFIRMS growers' preference for Camels with: "Camels stand ace high with tobacco planters. Camel buys better tobacco—my own and that of my grower friends!"

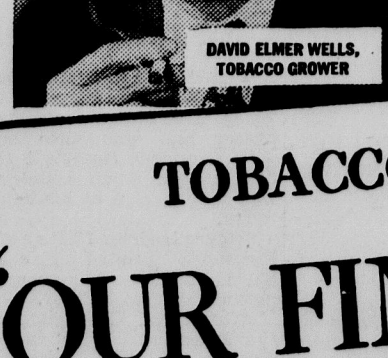

"THIS LAST CROP," says grower Robert Lee Oakley, "Camel bought my best grade tobacco as they have many times before. Naturally I smoke Camels. So do most other planters in these parts."

G. A. LANGLEY—NORTH CAROLINA TOBACCO PLANTER

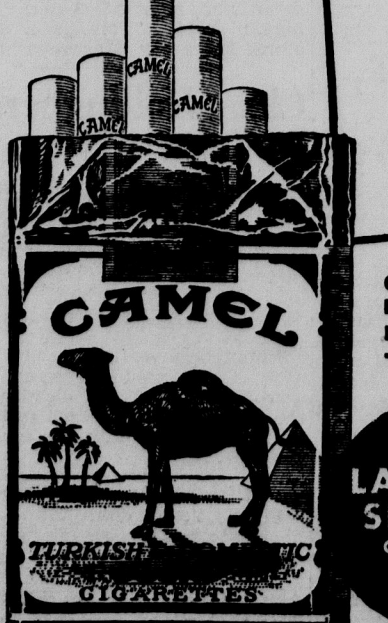

LEE MASON knows tobacco—he grows it. He says: "For a finer smoke, smoke finer tobacco. That means Camels to me and most planters. Camel pays to get the best."

GROWER MARVIN HOLLOMAN speaks as an "insider" on tobacco quality. "Finer tobaccos make a big difference in smoking. Camel takes my real choice lots. So I smoke Camels. Most growers do."

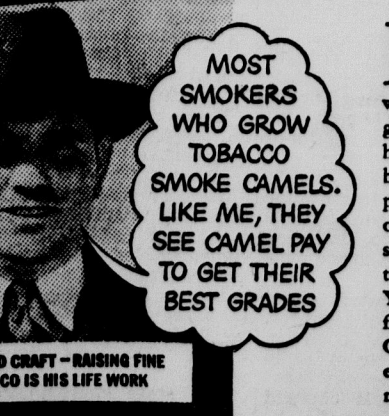

TOBACCO PLANTERS SAY:

"OUR FINEST TOBACCOS... the most richly fragrant and delicately mild varieties—go to Camel—naturally that's the brand we smoke!"

RAYMOND CRAFT—RAISING FINE TOBACCO IS HIS LIFE WORK

Is there a real difference in the tobacco that goes into various cigarettes? "Yes"—say the men who live with tobacco—the planters. These men grade their crops long before the warehouse sales. They know who buys their best grades. "Camel," say the typical planters on this page—"Camel buys our choicest lots!" So, for their own smoking, planters choose the cigarette that gets their choicest tobacco—Camel! Yes, there is extra enjoyment in Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos. Try Camels today! Compare them for their enjoyable taste, for their special mildness which permits steady smoking.

France Orders Survey Of German Preparation For War

NAZI MILITARY MOVES ALARM PARIS LEADERS

PARIS, (P)—France today instructed her diplomats abroad to transmit immediately to Paris all information available concerning military preparations now taking place in Germany.

Foreign office officials declared reports of Nazi military measures of unusual size were "being followed by diplomatic circles with the greatest attention."

An authorized source said information in the foreign office's possession showed "important maneuvers will be held in the Reich."

The statement was made in regard to reports of huge German troop movements published in French and British newspapers.

Newspapers of both London and Paris reported 1,300,000 reservists had been called to the colors in Germany for a period of instruction to supplement the standing army.

Some relief was expressed in foreign office quarters that German military preparations were designed to aid diplomatic pressure on the Czechoslovak government as well as Britain and France, for a rapid solution of the sudeten minority question along lines demanded by Adolf Hitler, self-proclaimed "protector" of all Germans outside the Reich.

Britain's unofficial mediator, Viscount Runciman, is now in Czechoslovakia studying the situation created by Nazi-supported sudeten demands for self-government.

Munich dispatches said Bavaria's population was upset by military preparations along the German-Czechoslovak frontier despite official assurances they were nothing more than usual autumn maneuvers.

Automobiles, trucks, furniture vans and even municipal buses of the district have been requisitioned by the German army.

and the impress left upon those who still remain. Some men even by sporadic contact leave a lasting influence in remote places, and among those with whom they circulate more intimately a helpful association and invaluable service.

I was reminded of such a contribution when informed of the death of H. G. Taylor, who on occasions visited Santa Ana relatives and addressed local service clubs.

He passed away while directing the destinies of the Association of Western Railway Executives, in Chicago, a task he was ably equipped to handle through long and tedious years of research and devotion. He will be remembered in Santa Ana by many for his analytical understanding of transportation problems, and keen insight into human relations. As a journalist, a public official and industrial director, he served long and well, and leaves a record which those who follow will evaluate in terms far beyond the intrinsic.

His car struck head-on a vehicle driven by Frank Carl Wick, 27, route 1, box 380, Anaheim, who lost control and swerved into another south-bound automobile driven by Thelma Morton, 182 Grand street, Corona.

The Morton machine swerved another car driven by Orville Harry Hefty, 1094 Gleneyre, Laguna Beach.

Passengers in the Morton car who suffered slight injuries were Bessie Price, 48; Dorothy Robinson, 30; Mona Lee Morton, 11, and 9-month-old Connie Robinson.

Girls 'Picket' Exposition Headquarters

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—A picket line, described by Golden Gate International exposition officials as the "most beautiful in America," was established by a dozen "theme girls" today in front of fair headquarters.

The theme of the theme girls was "The Fair's Unfair." Signs carried by the Pulchritudinous picket read:

"This Fair Unfair to the Fair."
"We're Out on a Limb."
"We Want a Leg-Acy."

The girls decided to picket after exposition officials ruled publicity must include more pictures of fair buildings and fewer pictures of fair maidens.

LOS ANGELES, (P)—A grand jury investigation next Wednesday will probe the death of Francis Volstad, 9, after a coroner's jury yesterday absolved his mother of responsibility.

The boy died Monday of what coroner's records listed as a ruptured appendix. He had been removed to General hospital on a court order.

The jury's verdict declared: "The responsibility (for the boy's death) rests with those persons in whose hands the deceased was given upon his removal from his home."

Mrs. Volstad testified he was taken to the hospital over her protests. Maurice Wingo, foreman pro tem of the grand jury, ordered the investigation.

U. S. OIL POOL GRAB WILL BE ATTACKED

Completion of plans for an attack against the Nye resolution, which would take for the U. S. government the Huntington Beach oil pool, was announced in Los Angeles today by the United Landowners association.

Ralph Forch, president of the group, said leading oil producers, bankers, real estate and insurance firms are expected to ally themselves with the movement.

Records of claimants in the government land office in Washington and data about old Spanish land grants will be used in the fight against government control of offshore oil pools, Forch said.

Forch blamed "a certain group of individuals in California who sought permits for oil operations from the department of the interior" for starting the Nye measure. Turned down there, he said, "this group turned to political activity."

CALIFORNIANS STEP AHEAD

RYE, N. Y. (AP) — Repeating their performances in the Seabright tourney of two weeks ago, Alice Marble of Beverly Hills, and Dorothy May Bundy of Santa Monica today reached the final round of the women's singles in the Eastern grass courts tennis championships at the Westchester Country club.

In semi-final engagements, Miss Marble defeated Mrs. Sarah Paley Fabry of Cambridge, Mass., who with her conqueror holds the Wimbledon and American doubles titles, by 10-8, 8-6. Miss Bundy triumphed over the top foreign seeded player, Mme. Sylvia Henrotin of France, 6-4, 5-7, 6-0.

The Marble-Fabry match provided the best women's tennis of the week, it being the first contest in which the nation's No. 1 ranking star lost more than three games. Indeed, she came close to losing a set and possibly the match, because the petite Mrs. Fabry had set point in the first set's sixteenth game three times.

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Old Mother Nature has a rodent control method that beats anything yet devised by man, says G. Neilson, rancher of near Salmon, Idaho.

Cancer Costs 4-Month Baby One Eye, Threatens Other; Mother Declines Optic Gift

NEW YORK. (AP)—Mrs. Estelle Colan, mother of four-months-old Helaine Judith Colan today declined the offer of John Crowley, WPA worker, to give one of his eyes to the infant who is threatened with loss of sight by a cancerous growth near her one remaining eye.

Mrs. Colan explained the transfer would not help the child.

Mrs. John J. Crowley, sent this letter to the baby's mother: "My husband is a war veteran and is willing to give one of his eyes if it will help to save your baby."

The baby brought here from Chicago by her mother, is to undergo an examination at Columbia Presbyterian Medical center to determine whether a cancerous growth was arrested by the removal of an eye in which the disease was most advanced.

The baby could not be examined yesterday, it had a slight cold.

Tax Study Data Ready Soon for Morgenthau

WASHINGTON. (AP) — Roswell Magill, undersecretary of the treasury, said today results of several important tax studies would be ready for Secretary Morgenthau when he returns from France late this month.

The undersecretary disclosed that his staff of experts was rushing its work so that there will be no delay when Morgenthau returns and begins tax policy discussions with the President.

He declined to specify which studies were near completion.

MOTHER LODE BOASTS OF '49

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—It may be 11 years off, but Mother Lode boosters already have big ideas about their 1949 centennial celebration.

"It's going to be so good," Assemblyman Jesse Mayo told the state highway commission, "that it will make the San Francisco fair look like a carnival."

The Angels Camp legislator spoke as a member of a delegation seeking improvement of the Mother Lode highway.

PASADENA. (AP) — When the name of Chris Sorenson, charged with a felony hit and run case, was called in superior court two men came forward.

Both men were named Chris Sorenson, and each was charged with suspicion of hit and run driving.

The right man had his attorney in court, pleaded not guilty and was released on $2500 bail until Oct. 18, the date for his trial.

A cyclone tore the roof from his barn. Lightning damaged what was left.

But Charles Faith still had some optimism left. Said he: "I guess I was lucky after all. The hay and other stuff in the barn was wet and wouldn't burn."

U. S. WILL BUY FRUIT JUICE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Federal Surplus Commodities corporation authorized its agents today to buy 1,250,000 cases of grapefruit juice from grower cooperative organizations and canners in Texas, Florida, California and Arizona between now and Jan. 1.

"This does not escape us, and we are preparing."

When they arrived, Brown was driving down the highway and deputies gave chase. He failed to stop for their siren, according to a report at the sheriff's office.

Dr. Roberts' visit next Sunday will be his second to the pulpit of the church since the dedication of the new sanctuary. He preached at one of the Vesper services held in connection with the opening of the new church.

In addition to his abilities as a public speaker, Dr. Roberts has held many high offices in the Presbyterian church. He is a former moderator of the synod of California, which office O. Scott McFarland now holds, and is at present chairman of the Board of Christian education of the Presbytery of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Meliner, a native of New Haven, is the daughter of Mrs. Anne T. Phillips of Bridgeport and has frequently appeared in pictures and stage productions.

Won't They Be Surprised When They Hit Fence?

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Migrating deer in Shell Creek canyon near the Montana-Wyoming boundary have a shock in store for them.

When they start their migration next spring to the west slope of the Big Horns they will get a shock of electricity every time they touch a certain wire fence that is being erected. The fence is an experiment to determine if a charged wire will keep deer from breaking into the alfalfa fields of ranches in that vicinity. If it works, all the fences will be charged.

THE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Here and There With Southern California Artists

By DONALD BUTTON

ANNIVERSARY

For these are the golden years, the years wherein southern Californians find themselves cultural pioneers within a metropolitan area.

These are the years when youth stand on equal footing with age and the new shall receive just as many plaudits as the commonly accepted.

The years wherein the Arts, by struggle and conquest, by forceful and dynamic controversy, shall become a living flame, a torch for the civilization they now enrich.

This is again a golden age! A resume of the two years spent in an examination of the Arts, and now ending, could prove very interesting statistically.

I thought I might recall the names and incidents that had made this year more memorable than when I first began to go about in search of the Arts.

Such preparation only made the task of recalling the friends, the celebrities and the celebrities who have become friends a difficult and rather tiring opus.

One began with Marion Anderson's aureate concert, "Porgy and Bess," Milford Zornes' Pomona college exhibit, Millard Sheets' Pomona fair exhibit, and on.

The recollections, the little incidents began to organize themselves into an orderly array. Suddenly there was too much to say within a news-minded column.

It must instead to the developments about me!

SAN DIEGO FRESCOES

Jean Goodwin and Arthur Ames, now sufficiently recovered from their Newport High school mosaic, move off to San Diego for three fifteen-day high frescoes in the new civic center.

The difficulties looming before presentation of the project evaporated at appearance of the proposed designs, and so Santa Ana's painters are to spend the winter work that is, I feel, to bring them national recognition and prestige.

It is to be hoped that, before

I am too old and grey-haired, Santa Ana will find it necessary to exist to demand the work of two so gifted as ornament for a public building.

Are not they our choice for decorators of the Civic Center—that is-to-be-Santa Ana?

HEIGHO PEGLER

A considerable controversy rages between Westbrook Pegler, columnist, and Beniamino Bufano, sculptor, over the latter's basalt and stainless steel "St. Francis" for Christmas Tree Hill, San Francisco.

In his opening argument Pegler offered New York's laurels for "the worst-public monuments in the world" to San Francisco upon acquisition of the Bufano statue.

Bufano would do well to enter the lists of our piecrust Victorian relic that stands upon a bit of grass at Fifth and Sycamore.

Pegler's most realistic plumbing delineations of the Bufano seem longingly appropriate for the gingerbread house about which Santa Ana turns.

How long must I wait to see an adequate plant come to being for that which is—Library now functioning within a conch shell?

ELECTION

Laguna stands upon the threshold of a momentous decision at the annual election of officers for the Gallery there tomorrow night.

It has been called to my attention to wait lengths Art has been protesting for the advancement of an agrarian-social position.

Money can buy much, it can buy chairs in what can be a musty gallery, but it can also become the apothem it instigates!

Fortunately, some of us are no longer willing to wait for those "four good funerals." Laguna's "four good funerals" society has to choose whether it will play ball with us, or against us. Our reason, in case of refusal to comply with that which is good for living art, is such a lovely place from which to shoot poisoned darts and pour the impatient pitch!

ANNIVERSARY OF D. U. V. GROUP CELEBRATED

Santa Ana Daughters of Union Veterans celebrated the 27th anniversary of the founding of Sarah A. Rounds Tent No. 10, at a beautifully appointed luncheon in the dining room of the M. W. A. hall last Tuesday.

Seated with the president, Mrs. Ella Smith, at the head of the flower-decked tables, were department officers from Los Angeles, president Ella Mosher and Edna Padworth, secretary, Eight past presidents of the Santa Ana tent were present. Mesdames Margaret Robertson, Nellie Parker, Rowena Groat, Luella Hill, Minnie Cowan, Elizabeth Adams, Esther Gardner, and Beren Baker, of which group Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Gardner are charter members.

While the delicious luncheon was being served by the committee consisting of Beren Baker, Florence Perry, Florence Price and Thelma Willingham, music was furnished by Helen Holmes and Ethel MacHazen. Following the main course of the luncheon, a mammoth birthday cake, presented by the committee, was brought in and but by Mrs. Mitchell, and served with ice cream.

Following this, a surprise awaited Ella Smith, whose birthday also fell in the same week as the tent anniversary. A lovely cake was presented by council members. Beren Baker, who was succeeded by Florence Perry, bearing a dainty basket filled with birthday cards, each accompanied by a gift and good wishes to the tent president. Each of the guests of honor were presented with a corsage.

During this business session which followed the luncheon, Mrs. Smith was further honored by being installed as assistant chief-of-staff of the department.

Members and guests present, other than those already mentioned, were the Mesdames Maybelle Harper, Lena Walters, Loretta Furia, Blanche Quiggle, Kate Rinshead, Anna Sheelin, Vivie Gosssett, Maude Sutton, Florence Dunn, Geraldine Beall, Thelma Willingham, Minnie McClure, Anna Cozad, Elizabeth Rupert, Anna L. Two Are Hostesses At Luncheon

Mrs. Roy Ivins was the recipient of a pretty courtesy yesterday afternoon when Mrs. E. A. B. Smith and Mrs. Mollie Ballard honored her at a delightful luncheon at the Doris-Kathryn Tea shoppe.

Their long table was decorated in blue and gold, with a bowl of marigolds and bachelor buttons from the gardens of the two hostesses, and giant zinnias from the same sources added still more color to the effect augmented by tallies and prize-wrappings.

Attractive boxes of stationery were the prizes won by Mrs. A. E. Wallace, Mrs. J. L. Allen, and Mrs. C. Arnold, while Mrs. Ivins was presented with a lovely silver and blue clip.

Guests of the hostess-duo were Mrs. Ivins, Mrs. Joseph Mays, Mrs. A. H. Farrar, Mrs. Leland G. Eubank, Mrs. Edith J. Snow, Mrs. Margaret Church, Mrs. W. W. Hyde, Mrs. E. F. MARY STODDARD

Traveling Companions Should Share Costs on All Trips

Now and then the problem of sharing expenses arises between two friends. It is a "touchy" subject at any time, and is even more so when the use of a car is concerned. One friend may be owner of an automobile, and the other her constant companion. In a case like this, there should be an understanding as to how much each should pay for trips, for since the owner really has the actual upkeep to take care of, it seems only fair that her friend should help. I received the following letter dealing with this question. It should help misunderstandings.

Dear Mary Stoddard: You have helped solve so many perplexing problems for many, many people I felt you might be willing to aid me with my difficulty.

It is this way, Miss Stoddard, I have a car and it seems everybody thinks it is just natural for me to take them places without a thought of cost of gas, oil, etc. I have worn out tires and used gallons of gas for those who seemingly much better off than I from the standpoint of worldly possessions.

Now I am asked to take an extended trip to the middle west with a friend where we both expect to visit relatives. I would have to do all the driving. I would like to know just how we should each share the expenses of the trip.

It would seem to me that the car must be put in condition for such a trip. Then there's the oil, gas and tires. Will you please tell me how all this may be shared?

TROUBLED.

Answer: Just have a frank talk with your would-be traveling companion and arrange that she be willing to pay her share of the costs of the trip. She must pay half of the overhauling and tire-replenishing bills, be ready to share gas and oil and repair expenses along the way.

Have a frank understanding before starting on the journey.

COFFEE PARFAIT
 One cup strong, freshly-made coffee, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg yolks beaten, 2 cups heavy cream, whipped.

Heat the coffee, sugar and salt over hot water until sugar is dissolved. Pour the mixture over beaten egg yolks, return to the double boiler. Cook as for custard (stirring over hot water until mixture forms a coating on a metal spoon). Cool.

Whip the cream. Fold in the custard. Then pour into a mold (or use your coffee can), seal tightly, and let freeze without stirring in ice and salt. Or pack in the trays of your automatic refrigerator and let freeze, without stirring. (Serves 4 to 6.)

Wait until your refrigerator desserts are half frozen before you add fruits. Otherwise the fruit is likely to freeze into hard, ice-like pieces.

Peppers Are In Season For Cooking

Green peppers are so mild and delicious now that they should be served for dinner, sliced in salads, and minced in cream sauces. They are a good source of vitamin C, the elusive vitamin. Some persons have to be "trained" to like green pepper, so serve it in small quantities when serving it raw.

Stuffed peppers, though, do not require any coaxing to be eaten. Try using sausage meat in the stuffing. It is different and good. SAUSAGE STUFFED PEPPERS

Ingredients required: One cup bulk sausage, 2 cups bread crumbs, 3/4 cup water or stock, 4 green peppers.

Fry the sausage until browned. Remove from fire, add bread crumbs and liquid. Mix thoroughly and fill green pepper shells, which have been parboiled. Bake in shallow pan in moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 30 minutes or until peppers are tender.

PEACH DELIGHT
 One-half teaspoon gelatin, 1 1/2 tablespoons cold water, 1/4 cup boiling water, 3 egg whites, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 1/2 pints peach ice cream.

Soak gelatin in cold water and dissolve in boiling water. Add sugar when mixture begins to thicken, pour slowly over beaten egg whites and continue beating until mixture is thick. Add vanilla.

Line a melon mold with peach ice cream and fill center with meringue mixture. Pack in ice and salt and stand 3 to 4 hours. (Serves 4 to 6.)

 One cup strong, freshly-made coffee, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg yolks beaten, 2 cups heavy cream, whipped.

AFL TO DRIVE FOR BIG NEW SAILOR UNION

SAN PIERO, Calif. (AP)—Money from the American Federation of Labor will finance a drive to enlist 100,000 seamen of the United States and Canada in a big new maritime union, Harry Lundberg said today.

Lundberg, secretary of the Sailors' union of the Pacific, addressed a joint meeting of sailors and firemen here last night, outlining details of the organizing campaign which will result from his new alliance with William Green, AFL president.

Mass meetings will be held by SUP locals at all principal Pacific coast ports next Monday, Lundberg said, to select delegates to a convention at San Francisco on Aug. 17 to draw up formal plans.

As soon as the plans are ratified by SUP membership, organizers will be sent into the field on both the east and west coasts, laying the groundwork for a national convention to give the union a name and adopt a nationwide program.

"Both the SUP and the AFL are determined to bring the seamen into one big union," said Lundberg, "to protect our seafarers from exploitation by politicians and communists," Lundberg declared.

"We already have our charter from President Green and the AFL will supply the funds for recruiting seamen, including the gulf ports, the great lakes and Canada."

State Bank for City Funds Sought

Folsom Warden Saves Felons Lot of Trouble by Serving Coffee 'Nightcap' Every Day

FOLSOM PRISON. (AP)—Warden Clyde I. Plummer saved some of the inmates a lot of trouble when he arranged for convicts to enjoy a hot coffee "nightcap."

The warden knew an untold number of prisoners defied the no-cooking-in-cells rule with the aid of a "smokeless" scheme.

They somehow smuggled small quantities of gasoline into the cells. Using a slick paper magazine which they found didn't emit much smoke, they heated water in tin cans had cups of hot chocolate, for one thing.

Plummer gave his permission to add a brand of concentrated, soluble coffee to the list of commodities which the convicts may purchase weekly through the prison commissary.

Now a trusty makes the rounds of the cell blocks at 8:30 p. m. each night and ladles out hot water to those who want it.

But that isn't the only innovation at the prison for two-terms and up. Eighty convicts who won cash prizes in the Fourth of July athletic contests received the privileges of buying regular cigarettes. Other smokers still have to "roll their own."

Four-Barreled Trouble Strikes

MARYSVILLE, Kan. (AP)—Farmer Lee Barney hates to lose his temper.

To keep from becoming angry, he quit work for the day after the power lift on his plow broke.

Two horns stung him as he sought a similar piece from another plow.

A spark went down his shirt and burned his back as he watched the blacksmith weld the broken equipment.

He left the blacksmith shop and found a flat tire on his car.

Grandma, 79, Uses Diving Board

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—The kids said "Gee" when Grandma Candrian took a dive from the four-foot board at the city swimming pool.

They didn't know Mrs. Adolph Candrian had learned to swim and dive when she was 57 years old. She's 79 now.

It was children's day, but the manager approved Mrs. Candrian using the pool, thinking she wanted to wade around.

GERMANS BAN U. S. MAGAZINE

BERLIN. (AP)—The secret police have banned Readers' Digest indefinitely from Germany and all foreign translations and editions of Kurt Schuschnigg's book Dreimal Oesterreich ("My Austria," by the former Austrian chancellor), the Official Gazette said today.

No reason for the banning of the Readers' Digest could be learned, but it was presumed jokes considered by the nazis as anti-German in the Aug. 1 issue of the magazine were the cause.

Smoked Turkey Newest Idea In East; Improved Flavor For Big Bird Is Claimed

BELTSVILLE, Mr. (AP)—Tang of brine and hickory smoke can step up the flavor of turkey meat so that even the most sophisticated gourmet will smack his lips over it.

Experts in the department of agriculture experimental station learned the secret in experiments on birds which have just reached the age of 28 weeks. At that age the turkey has developed sufficiently so that his meat is firm and mature but still is tender and juicy. Extra fat birds are preferred.

The bird is killed, plucked and drawn in the usual manner. Particular care is taken to avoid the skin.

The carcass then goes into a brine of salt, saltpepper and sugar for a week, the pickling completed, the carcass is hung in a smoke house for several hours, absorbing the piquant fumes of burning oak and hickory.

After smoking the bird is ready for storage until the consumer buys it. In preparing the smoked turkey for her dinner table the housewife roasts it in the usual fashion.

HOW MANY WOULD YOU KNOW BY TRUE NAMES?

Nicknames are so common in sport that it is doubtful whether fans would recognize heroes under their true names. For instance, there's Andrew Jackson Cook. He's Bill Cook, highly successful coach of our Dons. And there is Harold Smith—or better known to you as "Doc," the shortstop-manager of the Stars. Paul Wright, among Smith's teammates, is "Bono" instead of Benjamin Korral. "Fet" for Fred Wiener and "Bris" for Brister Richardson. Gerald Oliver would not be identified as University of Oregon's head football coach unless many heard the nickname "Tex." Other nicknames: "Pinky" for Reece Green, "Fuzzy" for Elwynne Errington, "Hen" for Henry Thier, "Chico" for Frank Sabella.

A. A. U. BOXING SERIES SHOULD AID S. A.

From all indications, those A. A. U. eliminations should enliven the fight cards at the Highway 101.

Beginning Monday night, two or four—perhaps six—boxers seeking further trials in the light-heavyweight division will be sent to the Orange County Athletic club. Survivors will meet at the same arena the following week, and will continue to fight until a district representative is chosen. The A. A. U. eliminations must not be confused with Promoter "Bud" Levin's regular eight-bout card. They will be in addition to the regular program.

REACHING DEEP DOWN INTO SPORTS BARREL

Big Bill Cole, University of Oregon's new line coach, dropped in yesterday to bid us goodbye. He's leaving today for Eugene, after spending a good part of the summer in Santa Ana. "I've been so busy up there with Oliver that I haven't seen much of the state," Bill said.

COUNTY NINES AWAIT SERIES

Positions were straightened out today in the County Nightball league preparatory to Monday night's opening preliminary round for the Shaughnessy playoff series. Placencia tumbled San Juan Capistrano out of second place, 8 to 4, at Tustin last night, leaving Tustin in first and Yorba Linda still in fourth position. Smiley bested Reg Nieblas on the mound.

Tustin will tangle with Capistrano in a four-out-of-seven series for the right to enter the finals and Placencia and Yorba Linda will square off in the other half Monday night.

Today a year ago—Shirley Hanover, owned by Lawrence B. Sheppard, wins Reach Hambletonian in straight heats.

Playoffs—Monday and Thursday Elks vs. Elites at 7:45.

A three-months-long City Softball league campaign had ended today.

Rising up for one murderous inning last night, Manager Darwin Scott's Elks moved down Elites' International Trucks, 8 to 5, the same club—except for the pitchers—they will meet in a three-out-of-five championship series starting Monday night.

Despite the execution of a triple play which stopped one of Alliance Mutual's two big innings, Montgomery Ward's nine, which pressed the veteran Walt Jordan back into uniform after nearly two months of inactivity, lost to the life insurance club, 5 to 4, in the curtain-raiser.

With neither club "playing for keeps," second-string pitchers went the route for the Elks and Elites.

Trailing 5 to 2 with the sixth inning coming up, the Elks got to young Sorenson for four straight hits and three runs before Elites' could get Parisi Roussos in from leftfield. Then the B. P. O. E. got one hit, three walks and three runs off the young "fireball pitcher."

Hearts opened with a hit to deep short and Heinisch lined a double into right which Ray O'Camp nearly snagged. Scott put a Texas leaguer into leftfield, which Roussos was playing too deep for, and two runs came in and Scott went all the way to third on the plan.

James Webb third on the plan, driving in Scott, and Roussos took the mound for Elites.

Alliance Mutual Life connected for five hits and four runs to defeat Montgomery Ward's in the fifth inning. Ward's threatened to deadlock the score in the seventh, but the rally was limited to one run off two hits.

Five years ago—Ralph Metcalfe equaled world record for 100 meters and 200 meters, doing 10.3 and 20.6 in international meet at Budapest.

SEEKS SPEED RECORD

HOLLYWOOD. (P)—Joel Thorne, millionaire sportsman, will try for a new speed record in a car of his own design on the Bonnevill salt flats in Utah next month, he told friends here today. Thorne said his car weighs a ton and has a 525-horsepower engine.

NEW YORK. (P)—Jimmy Phelan of Washington may turn up with the football surprise package on the Pacific coast this year. . . . He has a mess of new backs, including a 200-pound fullback named Mucha from the Chicago territory. . . . Mike Jacobs just received and framed his credentials as admiral of the fleet of American Airlines. . . . Mike is also a volunteer member of the Fairhaven (N. J.) fire department.

When you are introduced to Eddie Mead's latest fistic importation he bows and hands you a card reading as follows: "Milica Theodosiou, Boxer International, Student De Sciences Commerciales et Politiques. . . . What does it mean? . . . We bite. . . . Anyway the guy would seem to pack some class out of the ring if not in it. . . . Forty-five minutes before the Ambers-Armstrong show was to start Mike Jacobs counted the corporal's guard in the Polo Grounds and said: "I am being crucified, this thing will be a private fight."

Gunnar Barlund is the only fight pro Finland ever developed.

The former Helen Hicks says Patty Berg will be the next women's golf champion, and we would not be surprised.

Any member of the Green Bay Packers who eats hamburger sandwiches during the training season will be soaked a $5 fine. . . . It is generally agreed the week's postponement will be harder on Ambers than Armstrong. . . . Everybody glad to see Arnold Heber, Green Bay Packers passing star, out of that De Pere, Wis., hospital after an influenza attack. . . . Fans here have quit the Giants cold.

Salica and Dano Mix at Gilmore

HOLLYWOOD. (P)—Lou Salica, Brooklyn's former bantamweight champion, and Pablo Dana, Filipino ironman, meet at Gilmore stadium in a 10-round bout for the chance to fight sixto Escobar next month.

It is a rematch for the two veterans. They last clashed in 1936 and Salica won the decision by a late rally.

Dano, 31 years old, has been boxing since 1923. He estimates he has had 300 fights.

Seabiscuit Races Ligaroti In Del Mar's $25,000 Race To Settle Family Argument

DEL MAR, Calif. (P)—Something like the caballeria days of the Dons, there's a match race down here late today.

A calculating handicapper lists it as winner-take-all, mile-and-an-eighth, $25,000 stake; two entries—Seabiscuit, 5-year-old son of Foggy-Livia, Binglin Stock farms owner, Noel Richardson jockey, 114 pounds. Seabiscuit 1 to 3 favorite.

But it is not just a horse race. It is a family affair, as in the old ranch days when two groups of followers got together to see an argument settled.

The pari-mutuel windows will be closed, no bets accepted from the public. Thus any wagering, and considerable there is, is private. It is a match with the racing fraternity backing Charles S. Howard of San Francisco and his $200,205 purse winner, and the motion picture fraternity backing Bing Crosby, and Howard's son.

Louis Plans Four Fights

BAER LIKELY RIVAL FOR NEXT APRIL

NEW YORK. (P)—Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, has just announced he will fight four times in 1939, and it would seem some four fellows are heading for a ring-full of trouble. Louis will box next in Madison Square Garden in January, according to Mike Jacobs' plans. Max Baer—"The New Baer"—is expected to be the opposition on the Pacific coast in April, with June and September bouts outdoors in New York.

Jacobs, who thinks slightly more of Joe than he does of his right eye, said yesterday the champion would not fight again this year. "Joe is willing but his managers ain't," commented Michael. "They're afraid the income tax men will take most of his dough."

Since Louis won his title he has defended it against Schmeling, Harry Thomas, Natie Mann and Tommy Farr. There is no doubt he would like to fight again this year. He must at least train, to keep his weight down.

Lou Ambers and Henry Armstrong, stalemated by rain, returned to their respective camps at Summit and Pompton Lakes, N. J., to work a little more for next Wednesday night's bout in Madison Square Garden.

MORELLI PINS MAGILL HERE

Tony (Killer) Morelli ended the winning streak of Cecil Magill, sturdy Long Beach wrestler, at the Orange County Athletic club last night by winning the first and third falls with smother holds and body slams. Magill's drop kicks won the second.

Yukon Jake and Paul Murdoch battled to a furious draw—Murdoch taking the first fall with an overhead boomerang and Jake the second with a hammerlock. The bell ended the third fall, with all even.

Ben (Bolo) Pilar and Wayne Strombough fought to a 30-minute draw.

Jim Hutchinson, former pro griddler, lost the opener to "String Bean" Hall, who applied an overhead scissors.

Washington 52 51 505. Detroit 49 53 480. Chicago 41 50 451. Philadelphia 35 59 379. St. Louis 34 65 343.

First it was young Bob Feller who began getting kicked around and lost a "crusader" one to the Yankees. Next Johnny Allen's score arm couldn't take it any longer. Then Me. Harder's comeback went back into the mothballs.

And finally, Oscar Vitt, who wasn't used to that sort of thing—especially not after the pleasant experience of piloting Newark's "wonder team" to an International league pennant by 25½ games last season—sent young Al Milnar and old Willis Hurlin to the wars yesterday against the staggering St. Louis Browns, and got no better results.

Buck Newsom, opposing Milnar, tossed a five-hitter, and the Browns nipped the Tribe, 8-7. Then Tes Tietje, whose last well-pitched game was beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant, hurled a six-hitter, and Gabby Street's lads clicked for an 8-2 decision.

TEXAS POLOISTS GAIN

SANTA BARBARA. (P)—El Rancho polo team of Fort Worth, Tex., held its second victory today in the Santa Barbara summer tournament. Latest victims of the Texans were the San Mateo four, who lost, 12-8, yesterday. El Rancho has been defeated once.

Games Tonight: Anaheim at Santa Ana. Brea at Huntington Beach. Orange at San Bernardino. Irvine at Whittier.

Shaughnessy playoff positions for the four top teams will be decided when the curtain rings down tonight on a National Nightball league season that began in early May.

Anaheim plays at Santa Ana and Orange at San Bernardino in the two 8 o'clock encounters that will decide pairings for the two four-out-of-seven game series which will open with a double-header at Whittier field, Los Angeles, Sunday night.

Planning to rest Pitcher Stan Jacobsmeyer for the playoffs, Santa Ana's Stars will be decisive underdogs against Anaheim here. If Santa Ana loses, the Stars, as No. 4 team, would play Anaheim in the Shaughnessy playoffs. Huntington Beach's Oilers, as No. 1 club, would play San Bernardino in No. 3 spot.

PLAYOFF TICKETS

Tickets for the playoff doubleheader at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, Sunday night, may be obtained at Baker's bakery or Eddie Lane's cafe until Saturday night. Only 40-cent reserved seats are being sold. General admissions of 25 cents may be purchased at the gate.

The only way the Stars could draw San Bernardino in the first playoff would be with a victory over Anaheim here and a San Bernardino victory over Orange.

Realizing that a victory will stall off a series with Huntington Beach, the Valencia's will "shoot the works" here tonight. Santa Ana will start either Al Hunter of Long Beach, utility player, or Bob Mott, southpaw first-baseman, on the mound.

REBELS NEAR SPAIN MINES

HENDAYE, France. (AP)—Spanish Insurgent dispatches reported today General Gonzalo Queipode Liano's southern army had surrounded Cabaza De Buey in a rapid advance on the government's valuable Almedan Mercury mines.

The fall of Cabaza, which has the main bulwark of the government's defenses of Almedan, would open the Insurgent's way for a further advance east from Castuera.

While one Insurgent column was surrounding Cabaza, 24 miles west of Almedan, the Insurgents said, two others were driving directly toward the mining center.

The government moved back troops to the southwestern front to bolster a defense line of only six squads of militiamen against whom fell the brunt of the Insurgent drive.

Japanese Flags Now Wave in Philippine Islands

MANILA, P. I. (AP)—Use of Japanese flags in church services and worship of Japanese-made images were reported in the Babuyan islands of the Philippine group by Elpidio Quirino, interior secretary of the commonwealth. The Babuyans are fairly close to Japanese Formosa.

After his inspection trip to the Babuyans, the secretary recommended a more rigid patrol of the islands by Philippine cutters.

BATHER JUST ELUDES AUTO

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—If her bath had taken 10 seconds longer, Mrs. George Sims probably would have been killed today.

As it was, an automobile driven by Ethel Palmer, 35, with Roger Kincade of Fresno as a passenger, crashed through a fence, knocked down a concrete incinerator, plowed through a four-foot hedge, and came to a stop in Mrs. Sims' bathroom.

Police held Kincade and Miss

Frightened Thief Didn't Even Stop To Get His Shoes

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP)—A would-be chicken thief jumped right out of his shoes when James Miller fired at him.

Miller fired one shot into the night when he was awakened by his "chicken alarm." The next morning he found one shoe in the chicken yard and the other in the alley.

Palmer for investigation. They said they found a pistol in the auto.

Circumstantial Evidence Gives Him World Record

WINNIPEG. (AP)—Don McLeod of Winnipeg claimed the world's record for continuous flight by a model airplane after his little craft was found 35 miles from here. A year ago the 22-year-old fan watched it disappear while flying strongly at a height of 4000 feet.

The model weighed seven pounds and was driven by a one-fifth horsepower gasoline engine.

63-DAY WATER 'DIET' ENDS

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Mrs. Mae Zimmerman today listed the objective of a 63-day fast—relief from the pain of arthritis—as accomplished.

Weighing 103 pounds, 38 less than when she started her "diet" of four glasses of water daily, Mrs. Zimmerman tasted food for the first time yesterday.

She said her first meal was "very good and very tasty, but I'm still not hungry," adding

PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS FOR FLOWER SHOW ANNOUNCED

ANNUAL EVENT
OPENS SEPT. 10
IN BALLROOM

Project details and specifications, one of the most outstanding features of the annual Orange County Flower show, were released today by Mrs. Fred Allen, general chairman, and Mrs. J. E. Paul, district garden chairman of the state federation of women's clubs.

The show is scheduled to be held Sept. 10-11 in the Valencia ballroom on U. S. highway 101, and is sponsored by all garden clubs of the entire county.

Projects are as follows: "Still Life Study." An arrangement of flowers, fruits, vegetables, grasses or foliage to be used with the three-sided backgrounds provided last year. Space allowed will be 48 inches high, 48 inches wide and 30 inches from back to front. Backgrounds are now painted black and may be used as they are or altered by the use of paper, drapes or other means, not including paint, to suit the entry. For instance, the entry may be treated as the corner of a living room with a wall paper background. Tacks: thumb tacks or gummed tape may be used. Accessories permitted. The Orange County Federation board is offering prizes for this entry of $5, $3 and $2. In judging, 25 points will be allowed for color and harmony, 25 for proportion, 25 for quality of material and 25 for composition.

The second club project will be a decoration suitable for a card table luncheon, entrant to furnish table, linen, china and glass if desired; no silver. Linen and china will not be considered in judging except as they affect proportion, harmony of color or suitability. Judging points will be 25 points each for suitability of arrangement to purpose; color and harmony; composition and proportion. Prizes for the three best entries will be $3, $2, and $1. Choice of project must be indicated by clubs not later than Aug. 23 and the chairman or secretary notified.

Any club may enter an independent project whether or not entering either of the projects outlined. The independent project will be judged on its own merits. Applications for space must be made by Aug. 23. Entries must be in place by September 10 at 10 a. m. If any particular subject is represented by any group, it should have a card attached designating that subject as for instance, "Corner Decoration for a Living Room," "Patio Luncheon Table," "Victorian Still Life," etc.

The junior project is open to any boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 16 years, if a resident of Orange county. A miniature garden or landscape, 18 by 18 inches in size with a descriptive card attached, is specified. Should more than one person work on the project, names and ages must be stated. Application for space must be made by Sept. 1. Prizes, $3, $2 and $1. Judging points will be 25 each on theme interest, suitability of material to theme, workshop, proportion.

Decrease Shown in Deaths
Figured in Mileage Terms

(By The AP Feature Service)

Highway deaths are going DOWN—figured in terms of mileage driven. The map and chart tell the story. They are based on ones prepared by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association from National Safety Council figures.

Last year there were fewer highway deaths, per mile traveled, in 32 states. These states, and Texas, in which there was no change, are shaded.

The total number of highway deaths has been increasing. But based on the number of automobiles, and on the number of miles traveled, deaths in recent years have been decreasing.

CITY JUDGE
COLLECTS $32

Traffic offenders contributed $32 to Santa Ana's city coffers yesterday as the result of hearings before Police Judge J. G. Mitchell.

Speeding fines included Pedro Ybarra, Santa Ana, $10, and John G. Haber, Santa Ana, $8. Archie James Baker, Anaheim, paid $5 for missing a boulevard stop, and Harry J. Nejedlo, Riverside, was charged the same amount for jumping a signal.

Parking tickets, complicated by failure to appear, cost Perry Planchon and Max C. Holmes, Santa Ana, each $2. Prescott H. Johnson, Santa Ana, was given a work order to pay off a $25 reckless driving fine.

BOYS' NINES IN

Both clubs are undefeated in their respective leagues. This game will open the playoff for the junior and senior championships of Orange county.

WIDOW WINS COURT ROUND

Catherine L. Newman, widow of the late John William Newman, wealthy Seal Beach land owner, today won a round in her battle for control of her late husband's estate when Superior Judge G. K. Scovel ordered that her $200-a-month widow's allowance be continued and declined to require her to post additional bond as executor of the $60,000 estate.

Mrs. Newman and Ruth C. Whidden, co-respondents in a will contest by Julia N. Smith and Bernard Newman, brother and sister of the deceased, appeared in court today on an order to show cause why the will probate should not be revoked, and Judge Scovel ruled in their favor when the will contestants failed to put on testimony.

Bernard Newman and Mrs. Smith allege Mrs. Newman never was legally married to their brother, and they asked that her allowance be cut off. Claiming Mrs. Newman intended to take $40,000 from the estate and from the estate of a previously deceased brother, Bernard Newman of Los Angeles, the contestants also asked that Mrs. Newman's bond be increased.

NEW J. C. PLAN
TO BE TOPIC
HERE AUG. 18

A public meeting which may decide the fate of the projected union junior college for southern Orange county was called today for next Thursday night.

The session, called by the board of education on request of a citizens' committee pushing plans for the new college, will be held in the city hall council chambers.

"On the expressions we get at this meeting," said President George Wells of the school board, "will depend largely our board's action—whether or not we will call a bond issue to provide a sponsor's share for a PWA project on the college."

Sponsors would be required to put up 55 per cent of the project's cost, with PWA furnishing 45 per cent, including a share of the real estate cost and the interest on bonds during construction of the institution.

Next Thursday's meeting was called following a conference of school board members with the citizens' committee appointed several months ago to push plans for the college. A. N. Zerman, one committeeman, was unable to be present; but Alex Brownridge, George Dunton and Plummer Bruns, other members, talked at length with the board and requested the public session.

If a bond issue is decided on, it will have to be called quickly. Oct. 1 is PWA's deadline for submission of projects, and before that time voters must have expressed their desire to borrow money for the college. Cost of the institution has not been decided on, but estimates may be considered at next Thursday's meeting.

Legal requirements make advertising and preparation necessary for 22 days before a bond election can be held, Wells said, and the board must meet seven days after the election to canvass the vote. These requirements make speedy action essential, he pointed out, if the project is to be undertaken, since advertising would have to start soon after Sept. 1.

"We hope there will be a large turnout for Thursday's meeting," said Wells. "This problem is the people's, and we want to conform with their desires in the matter." Agitation for the new jays has been under way for several years, but the plan took concrete form only recently. The present Santa Ana Junior college, much of it housed in temporary buildings, is becoming more crowded every year with increased enrollment.

Lionettes Meet
Bankers Tonight
In Hollywood

Dealing a serious blow to Orange's Lionettes championship ideas, Major Girls' Softball league's moguls, who may have become a bit worried that an outside club should capture the title, without warning added another five-game round to the current second half, which is to end Aug. 31.

Coached along to reach their peak when the season was to close against Columbia Pictures, Aug. 21, the Lionettes may hit a slump like any other team in the extra round which has been winning regularly.

Leading by one game over Young's Market and one and a half over Columbia, the Lionettes will be out to strengthen their first-place position against Bank of America's girls at Fairfax field tonight.

Indiana Town's Low-Cost Housing Plan
May Present Solution To Problem Here

While county supervisors moved slowly in considering a $1,000,000 low-cost housing plan under the Steagall act, word came today from Fort Wayne, Ind., which may assist in holding down cost of the proposed project when and if it is started.

"Fort Wayne," said William B. F. Hall, chairman of that city's housing authority, "is the only place in the world which is undertaking a slum clearance program which will re-house the same family in the same location at the same rent in a decent house with no additional cost to the taxpayer."

The plan requires no cash grant or loan from any state or federal authority. Plans being considered here call for a $900,000 loan from the federal government, and a $100,000 contribution by the county, including tax cancellation and supervision of the project.

"This unique solution," said slums here and elsewhere often exist on land held for future use as industrial and commercial locations. Very often the rents from such slums do not even pay current taxes.

"The Fort Wayne Housing authority, which under Indiana state law has all the powers of a non-profit real estate corporation, offers to purchase such properties for $1."

It also agrees to resell the property for $1 to its original owner at any time he finds a better use for it. In this way, the authority, whose real estate is tax free, gets property for housing at no cost and the land owner is relieved of the tax burden until his land can be put to a more profitable use.

"Next, the authority clears the land of slum properties with WPA labor and erects on it an entirely new type of prefabricated house. This house is built in sections by factory production methods and with WPA labor. It can be assembled on the cleared site in as short a period as 24 hours."

Thus families occupying the old houses, Hall said, can be re-housed on the same site quickly. When the original owner wants his land back, the houses can be moved easily.

The $900 material cost of the homes is covered by FHA insured mortgages made by local institutions to the authority. The houses rent complete for $2.50 a week, complete with living quarters, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath.

The $2.50 weekly rent pays for all expenses and amortizes the 4 1/2 per cent mortgage in 20 years. The houses are fully insulated, fire resistant, and can be scrubbed out with a hose.

3 BURGLARIES
KEEP POLICE
HERE ON JUMP

Three burglaries—two on South Parton, the other on South Birch—kept Santa Ana police cars on the run last night.

While Mrs. E. U. Farmer, 1221 South Parton street, was in the kitchen washing dishes a prowler searched every other room in her home, and removed $15, in addition to some small change. Mary Tomblinson, 1214 South Parton, told police she saw a man, about six feet tall and carrying a flashlight, flee from the residence. The police call was made at 8:41 o'clock.

Eleven minutes earlier a call came in that the home of J. C. Hoffman, 1217 South Parton, had been entered through a bedroom screen. Although the house was ransacked, only 50 cents was reported missing.

While a party was in progress in the backyard of the O. P. Veach home, 1309 South Birch street, a prowler entered the front door or window and removed $2.50 from the purse of Mrs. O. P. Veach and $3 and a gold pencil from the purse of Rosa Veach. It was reported to police. The crime was committed between 7 and 8:42 p. m. yesterday.

after the raid that the Castros, living in a little house on South Palm street, had boasted of selling more than 1000 marijuana cigarettes a day. Neighbors said the house was frequented by large numbers of school children.

COBB DEBATES SUITS AGAINST CANDIDATES

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—The supreme court in special conference yesterday denied two petitions seeking writs of mandate to remove the names of candidates from the primary ballot when they seek more than one nomination.

One petition was filed by Scott Weller of Los Angeles, running for state controller on the Democratic ticket. He challenged the direct primary law and contended it was so amended in 1933 that in reality it was repealed.

Weller asked a writ to compel Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state, to keep the name of Controller Harry B. Riley from the primary ballot, because he sought the office on the Democratic, Republican and Progressive tickets. Weller said Riley is a registered Republican and argued the law requires a candidate to seek office on the ballot of his registered party only.

Weller also sought to bar the names of Alexander E. Snider and William McLaughlin, candidates on three tickets. He said they are registered with only one party.

The other petition was filed by Edward L. Thresher, Democrat, candidate for the board of equalization in the fourth district in Southern California. He sought to bar the names of William G. Bonelli and Robert H. Kee, whom he said are registered as Republicans while running on three tickets.

The petitions were denied without comment.

What's What 'Bout Traffic

By CAPT. H. C. MEEHAN
(Captain, Orange County Unit, California Highway Patrol)

Traffic questions should be sent to Chief Cato, at Sacramento. Answers will appear in this paper at an early date.

Q. Is it true that horse drawn vehicles have the right of way on all highways and that motorists must stop when a horse and rider is crossing a street or highway?

H. C. Y. A. The vehicle code provision in this respect based upon consideration of animals and live stock provides that motorists reduce speed or stop as may be necessary in order to avoid frightening and safe guard animals and live stock or obtain safely of any person riding or driving animals or in charge of live stock.

Q. Is it necessary to make a report of an accident where only slight property damage has resulted?

G. T. H. A. This is not required by law. Q. I recently was injured in an accident to such an extent that I was unable to get names of witnesses, etc. I wish to make a claim against the offending persons. Where can I secure such information?

A. Write to the department of motor vehicles and you will receive assistance to the extent that the law permits. The vehicle code permits the disclosure of names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses to, an accident, the registration numbers and description of vehicles involved, and the date, time and location of the accident to any persons having a proper interest therein.

Q. Can such report be used by me in a court trial?

A. No, it cannot be used in trial either in civil or criminal because section 488 of the vehicle code distinctly prohibits such use.

Q. I sent my suit to the cleaners' last week and my operator's license which was in small secret pocket was destroyed. Can I secure another without spending a half day, going 20 miles to the nearest examining office? H. J. L.

A. When a license is lost, destroyed or mutilated, the person to whom the same was issued may obtain a duplicate thereof upon furnishing satisfactory proof of such fact to the department. This can be done by correspondence with Sacramento.

Q. How long is an operator's license now being issued valid for?

Miss S. O'N. A. Operator's licenses now being issued are good for four years.

TUBERCULOSIS RATE DROPS

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Dr. Walter M. Dickie, state director of public health, revealed that California's tuberculosis death rate reached a record low last year.

The 1937 rate was 67.8 per 100,000 population, one-third of the 1911 rate and one-fourth of the 1924 rate.

"While there have been remarkable advances made in the control of the disease," the director said, "it is recognized that it still constitutes a major problem in public health."

Dr. Dickie said the disease continues to have a high incidence among Mexicans who, although making up only 6.5 per cent of the state's total population, contributed 21.5 per cent of the 4478 tuberculosis deaths.

Horse Commission 'Wins' $2,600,000 At State Tracks

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—A total of $68,142,558 danced across the boards in pari-mutuel betting during the 253 days of California racing in the 1937-38 fiscal period.

The California horse racing commission made the figures known in a report also disclosing that the state collected $2,661,143 as its share of the take.

Two-thirds of the handle poured out of the machines at Southern California tracks, principally at Santa Anita, which contributed half of the total, and the Hollywood Turf club at Inglewood.

Inheritance of Shipping Chief's Daughter Dwindles

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP)—Visions of a million-dollar inheritance at the age of 21 dwindled to a mere $30,000 today for 18-year-old Mrs. Andrea Luckenbach Dobbs, estranged daughter of Commodore Edgar F. Luckenbach, shipping magnate.

Andrea had expected a seven-figure inheritance from the estate of her mother, the late Mrs. Andrea Marie Fenwick Luckenbach.

Today, however, the Suffolk county clerk said Andrea's father had filed a voluntary accounting of the mother's estate and that "it appears there will be less than $30,000 for distribution."

The gross estate, it was said, totaled only $100,000 instead of the reported $1,000,000, and deductions totaled more than $70,000.

The pretty, impetuous heiress, who crossed her father's wishes two months ago by marrying William Dobbs, gentleman horseman and $35-a-week butter-and-egg salesman, has gone to live in a cottage at Syosset, Long Island. "My father has made no overture of forgiveness," she said. "Neither have I. He's mad, and I'm mad—and that's that."

Former residents of Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana are invited to the outing.

FACING PROBE, TWO OFFICIALS RESIGN POSTS

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Faced by an investigation by the state personnel board, Carl Sturzenacker, chief of the division of land in the department of finance, and H. A. Alexander, a subordinate, resigned their positions, Fred B. Wood, president of the board said today.

Two affidavits filed with Attorney General U. S. Webb charged the two men conspired with associates in utilizing Sturzenacker's office to obtain information on the filing on state lands in advance of the effective date of the tidelands oil leasing act passed at the special session of legislature.

The personnel board's investigation was to determine if any civil service law had been violated, Wood said.

Here's Why We Have Ex-Iowans

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Here's one reason, as James B. Cooke, Jr., secretary of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, believes, why there are so many ex-Iowans in southern California.

Cooke says the citrus growers and the Southern Pacific selected Iowa as a "test" state for an advertising campaign in 1907, apparently selling the idea to come to California to quite a few Iowans.

Cynthia Glenn is unpredictable. Hence, Peter Moore, in love with her, is not surprised by her latest "crazy scheme." In her absence, he has rented her ancestral home to the newly-rich Mrs. Potter-Payne, who is trying to create "background" for herself with the hope of marrying her daughter and son, Irene and Tommy, to an Englishman and his sister, Bruce and Beatrice Kerr, her house guests. Cynthia decides to turn author and put the Potter-Paynes in a book. Calling herself "Janet Smith," friend of Cynthia Glenn's, she becomes Mrs. Potter-Payne's secretary. She discovers that the Kerrs are in financial straits and, when some silverware is stolen, suspects Bruce. Meanwhile, Irene, spurning Bruce, has been playing about with Peter. Her mother, upset by this development, asks Cynthia to play up to Bruce and make him jealous. Cynthia does, with great success. Then, the opening chapters of her book are rejected. She is crushed.

CHAPTER XXX
AS CYNTHIA dressed for dinner that evening, she tried to shake off the depression that engulfed her, but she couldn't. The bad news she had received that afternoon had been a severe blow.

But chiefly her unhappiness was due to her longing for Peter. If only she could pour out her heartache and disappointment to him, everything would be all right. But she was too proud to send for him. Again and again she almost rushed to the phone, but each time, she checked herself. She could not forget the way in which he had been devoting himself to Irene — could not forget that he had topped that by taking Beatrice to Lovers' Leap this afternoon. No, she would not send for him. It was up to him to come to her! Illogically, she brushed aside the fact that she herself had told him that she wanted to be left alone while she was writing her book. In her present mood, that made no difference. She felt that he should know that she hadn't meant for him to take that too seriously. And she thought, if he truly loved her, he would have paid no attention to it!

HER toilette completed, she went listlessly downstairs. She started into the living room — but stopped short on the threshold. She had walked in on a love scene. Bruce had Irene in his arms and was kissing her ardently. They separated at the sound of the little gasp Cynthia gave, and both blushed in embarrassment — but at the same time, they looked exceedingly happy. Had that kiss been sealing an engagement, Cynthia wondered.

"I'm — I'm sorry," she stammered, and hastily withdrew. Well! It looked as though Mrs. Potter-Payne need worry no longer about Irene and Bruce. That little romance seemed at last to have panned out.

Going out onto the porch, Cynthia felt a little twinge of jealousy. The sight of others finding happiness in love only increased the ache in her own heart.

Then, suddenly, she had a sinking feeling. Heavens! Bruce might be a thief, and here she had aided in bringing Irene into his arms! Somehow, she hadn't really expected Irene to capitulate.

She began guiltily to regret the part she had played in helping the romance along. Of course, she had done so only at the request of Mrs. Potter-Payne and Tommy. But — was it right to let Irene actually become engaged to Bruce and not give one of the Potter-Paynes a hint of her suspicions concerning him?

Then, she realized that there

11,908 Motorists Stall Cars on S. F. Bay Bridge

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Don't let it get you down if the car stalls on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge.

For a report shows it has happened to 11,908 motorists since the span opened in 1936. That, on the basis of 15,048,565 crossings, is one out of every 1281.

The majority of the cars just needed gas, says Principal Bridge Engineer Charles E. Andrew. A total of 6514 vehicles sputtered and came to a stop for this reason.

The bridge's roadside maintenance service towed an additional 3554 cars that had engine trouble, lacked a spare tire or crashed. It changed 1781 tires on the span.

S. B. County Sets Voters' Record

SAN BERNARDINO. (AP)—Registration of San Bernardino county voters has set a record of 76,109, said County Clerk Harry L. Allison today.

The previous record was reached in November, 1934, when 72,895 persons were eligible to vote. The Democratic party has gained 8.2 per cent in strength over four years ago, while the Republican party has lost 8.8 per cent.

Registration by parties follows: Democratic, 43,582; Republican, 28,978; Townsend, 458; Prohibition, 332; Progressive, 281; Socialist, 115; Communist, 31; declined to state, 2304.

FIRE MENACES WELLS
NEWHALL. (AP)—A brush fire that swept 125 acres in DeWitt canyon three miles west of Newhall, menacing four oil derricks and several ranches, was reported under control today.

I Just Found Out About Orange County

By MILLARD BROWNE

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

The superior court of the state of California, in and for the county of Orange, is now in session—has been for more than 49 years—since that torrid day on the first of August when the late J. W. Towner first rapped a gavel on a desk in his own office.

Mr. Towner was the county's first superior judge, and his first session of court was held in his office Aug. 1, 1889. Only other persons present were Sheriff R. T. Harris and Clerk R. Q. Wickham.

Since then, more than 40,000 cases—murder trials and divorce suits, million-dollar estates and puny little damage cases—have gone through the Orange county courts as a succession of only 10 different superior judges took over the bench that now is divided into three separate benches.

A lot of glamor, heart-throbs and the usual amount of routine passed through the court in those early years—just after Orange county was broken off from Los Angeles county. The county's first few criminal cases, in fact, included such "juicy" events as three murder trials, three embezzlement cases, two grand jury accusations for official misconduct, criminal libel and numerous indictments for other penitentiary offenses.

No. 1 case in the county history was filed during that opening session of court—and it wasn't finished for 17 years. It was a petition by C. F. Mansur for guardianship in the estate of Joseph Buck, and final decree in the case wasn't issued until October, 1906. Victor Montgomery was Mansur's attorney.

Granting of temporary guardianship in case No. 1 was part of the first day's session in the new superior court. Next case to come up was Arthur Bagley's petition for letters in the estate of James A. Waite. Judge Towner appointed a committee to examine the petitioner; then he ordered drawing up of a civil, special procedure and criminal calendar, and adjourned court for four days.

The court's second session was convened in the old city hall over the postoffice, and all it did was to grant U. S. citizenship to one A. Hansler Larter. In the fourth session, J. D. Fennessey's application to become court reporter was received, and he later became the county's first official reporter.

Succession of superior judges in Orange county's comparatively brief superior court history reads like this: Judge Towner served two terms, was succeeded by J. W. Ballard; Z. B. West defeated him for reelection and served 24 years. Meanwhile, in 1913, department two was created, and W. H. Thomas became its first presiding officer; he went onto the appellate bench and R. Y. Williams was appointed to succeed him.

When department three was created, Frank Drumm went on the bench briefly, resigned and was succeeded by E. J. Marks, whose appointment to the appellate court was followed by appointment of G. K. Scovel, present judge. Judge H. G. Ames was appointed a superior judge when Williams resigned, and Judge James L. Allen, who already had been elected to his present office, was appointed to the bench on the death of Z. B. West.

In the old days, there weren't any auto accident cases, but there were plenty of everything else. First 25 civil and probate cases (they were listed together then), for instance, included 14 civil suits, four petitions for guardianship and three for letters of administration; two cases on appeal from justice courts, a voluntary petition from an insolvent debtor and a petition for letters of sole tradership.

The early criminal docket was a bit bloodier. First two cases were petitions for writs of habeas corpus, transferred from Los Angeles county when the new court was created. In the second case, Juan Ruiz asked habeas corpus on his grand larceny arrest, and when it was denied, the complaint against him became Criminal Case No. 3.

He demanded, and got, the very first jury in Orange county history, and the jury acquitted him. Jurors: F. D. Sheffer, L. Goepfer, J. G. Kimball, Clarence Meacham, B. B. Greenleaf, Robert Cummings, S. B. West, Robert Cogburn, J. R. Congdon, C. E. Harmon, F. M. Goff, Charles West.

The sixth criminal case on the county's records was an interesting little gem: Modesta Abila was charged with putting an obstruction across the railroad tracks and causing a train to derail. She drew three years in San Quentin (women went there too in those days). The eighth case was rather rare, too—it sent a man off to the penitentiary for a year for offering to bribe a judge.

First murder trial in the county ended in acquittal; it was in 1894. First man convicted of murder was Julian Berdugo, who drew a 15-year sentence in 1896 for second degree murder; two months later Antonio Saccio was sentenced to life in San Quentin for first degree murder.

The county grand jury voted its first indictment in 1890. George

Third Orange County Man Named To High 20-30 Club Office

HERBERT HILL NEW DEPUTY DISTRICT HEAD

High honor was accorded Herbert L. Hill, manager and partner of the Hale's Food store, when he was unanimously elected deputy district governor of the 20-30 club at a meeting held in the new Masonic temple in Long Beach last night. He succeeds Tim Baker.

Hill was one of the delegates to last night's meeting at which representatives from Long Beach, Whittier, Downey, Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange, Newport Harbor, and Santa Ana were present. James Walker was the other Santa Ana delegate.

Election to the new post added to the 20-30 honors Hill has received in the past five years. He is a past president of the Whittier club, from which he transferred to the local group a few years ago.

Hill will serve for one convention year. He will be sworn into office and begin serving his term immediately following the national convention, scheduled for El Paso, Tex., Aug. 16, 17, 18, and 19. John Knox will represent the local club at the conclave.

The advancement brings to this county another important officer in 20-30. The new district governor, V. G. Wolfe, is a member of the Orange club. Retiring national president is Ralph Layton, resident of Fullerton.

In his new capacity, Hill will be governor over sub-district four, composed of clubs represented at last night's gathering. Besides being deputy governor, Hill will continue to act as a national committeeman in the club. He will serve under the retiring president, Layton.

The local deputy governorship comprises one of the "garden clubs" of the national service group. It is one of the largest sub-districts in 20-30 and is extremely active.

Tomato Canning Season Opens

RIVERSIDE, (AP)—The Arlington Packing corporation was arranging today for warehouse facilities in preparation for the opening of the tomato canning season, following the destruction by fire yesterday evening of its warehouse and 40,000 case of canned apricots.

H. M. Looney, manager, estimated the loss at $125,000, partly covered by insurance.

The concern employs 300 workers at the height of the season.

Newspaperman Dies in Crash

DECATUR, Ind. (AP)—Three persons were killed and five injured in a collision of two automobiles near here early today.

The dead were D. R. Petersen, 23, head of the United Press bureau at Fort Wayne; Miss Monica Colchin, 22, of Decatur, and Jerome Gase, 30, of near here.

Petersen was a native of Miles, Ia., and formerly worked for the United Press in Milwaukee and Chicago.

Farm Hand Leaps Under Big Truck

OXNARD, Calif. (AP)—O. J. Brigham of San Diego, a truck driver, told police passing motorists stopped him to tell him that he had run over a man with his 15-ton semi-truck and trailer.

The victim was listed as Plutarco Valenzuela, 38, vegetable worker. Brigham said motorists informed him the man threw himself under the truck.

Because of the numerous accidents to bicyclists, the British Transport Advisory council recommends that cycle tracks be provided on both sides of the main roads in that country.

R. Broadbent and Royal F. Burgess were indicted for criminal libel, but were promptly acquitted.

Other firsts, according to county court records: E. E. Edwards was first district attorney; first appeal was from a Santa Ana justice court verdict in favor of the city of Santa Ana, with George E. Freeman as the unsuccessful appellant; wife charged husband with desertion in the county's first divorce suit, filed in 1890.

The county grand jury voted its first indictment in 1890. George

Angry Women Fail to Stop Zooming Planes

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Assertions that airplanes flew so low over their restaurant that tablecloths were blown from the tables were contained in a recent claim two women made for $4300 damages. The petition contended the planes, landing and taking off from the municipal port, damaged trees, radio aerial and shrubs because of their low flying. The city was asked to stop the planes from "trespassing" on property the two women own. The claim was denied.

The gasoline tax was first adopted by Oregon in 1919, and was taken up by all states during the next 10 years.

MOTORCYCLISTS PREPARE FOR RACES SUNDAY

Final conditioning touches were given today to Orange county's fast new motorcycle racing track on the Coast highway west of Newport Beach, as preparations were completed for the Four-Star Tourist Trophy races at 1 p. m. Sunday, under sponsorship of the Orange County Motorcycle club.

The track, located one mile west of the Arches overhead, was first used at the Three-Star races May 1. Since that time the track has been lengthened to a five-eighths mile course, and improved to the extent that it now offers speed fans the fastest, most thrilling course in Southern California.

The track has a long hill, several right and left turns. It drops down to a gully about 15 feet deep, runs under about 80 feet of sand in some spots adds to the hazards, and the long straightaway provides for roaring finishes, it was announced. Site for the track was donated by Joe Betsch, owner of the Talbert Meat company.

The Four-Star race is sanctioned by the American Motorcycle association, a national association of which the Orange county club is a member. Fifty riders are expected to compete for the $225 which will be offered in prizes. Several of the speed kings, some national title holders will go east to compete in national events following this Orange county event.

Eight instead of the customary six races will be run off. These will include four 10-lap heat races, two for 45-cubic inch motors and two for 80 inch motors. Two eight-lap consolation races, one for each size motor, will precede the two 25 lap main events.

Officers of the Orange County Motorcycle club, sponsors of the event, are: Bob White, Santa Ana, president; Bud Hare, Westminster, secretary-treasurer; Bob Cone, Santa Ana, road captain; and Shorty Ball, Santa Ana, club A. M. A. referee.

Purchase of 48 acres of land on the Santa Ana river near Olive was being completed today by directors of the Orange County Water district, who posted $2250 in escrow for the property.

The Walter Eden estate was former owner of the land in and near the river, including nine acres of land outside the river channel, eventually to be used by the district and the county flood control district to widen the river channel.

The purchase is one of a series closed recently to give the water district title to all lands where water spreading works are being developed.

Another $500 also was voted for expansion of the water spreading works washed out by the floods last March 3. Directors authorized purchase of a subsoiler from the May-Bemis company of Santa Ana for $128.75, to aid in the work being directed by W. C. Mauerhan of Katella, director of the district.

France, Italy, Belgium and Switzerland formed a monetary union in 1865 under which they agreed to establish a uniform coinage.

Imports of Gold Highest in Month

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Gold imports rose last week to $21,098,816, the highest in four weeks.

Commerce department said today shipments included $3,840,000 from Sweden, $4,860,258 from England, $4,043,288 from Canada, $1,708,315 from Mexico, and $5,874,820 from Japan.

Anhui province, China, is such excellent rice growing country that when a good crop is obtained it is sufficient to last the population for five years.

The average daily wage of the Chinese richsha coolie is (U. S.) 20 cents. His working day in most cities of China is eight hours.

PETITION ASKS IMPROVEMENTS ON S. MAIN

Petitions demanding immediate improvements on South Main street were being circulated among 300 businessmen and property owners in the district today, preparatory to presenting the demand to city councilmen Monday night.

The petitions being circulated by Orson Hunter, James Marigold, Charles Guard, Dr. J. W. Hancock, A. N. Gallman and S. E. Eller, South Main street Businessmen—request immediate action on:

1. Completion of the project to widen Main street from Fairview north to First street.

2. Removal and trimming of all trees and shrubbery in parkings, which interfere with business houses on South Main street, and increase in street lighting facilities to not less than two 300-watt bulbs in each standard (there is only one bulb in each standard at present, the petitioners point out).

The businessmen and property owners are basing their request on increased business activity in the district, and the fact that through traffic to the beaches and southern points is steadily increasing along south Main street.

The average daily wage of the Chinese richsha coolie is (U. S.) 20 cents. His working day in most cities of China is eight hours.

Is wealth the secret of Good Living?

A pleasant evening—Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Meyer like to have friends in often for a rubber or two of bridge. "Refreshments are never a problem at our house—cold bottles of Brown Derby Pilsner please everybody," says Mrs. Meyer. "A millionaire couldn't ask a finer beer—nor have a better time than we do"

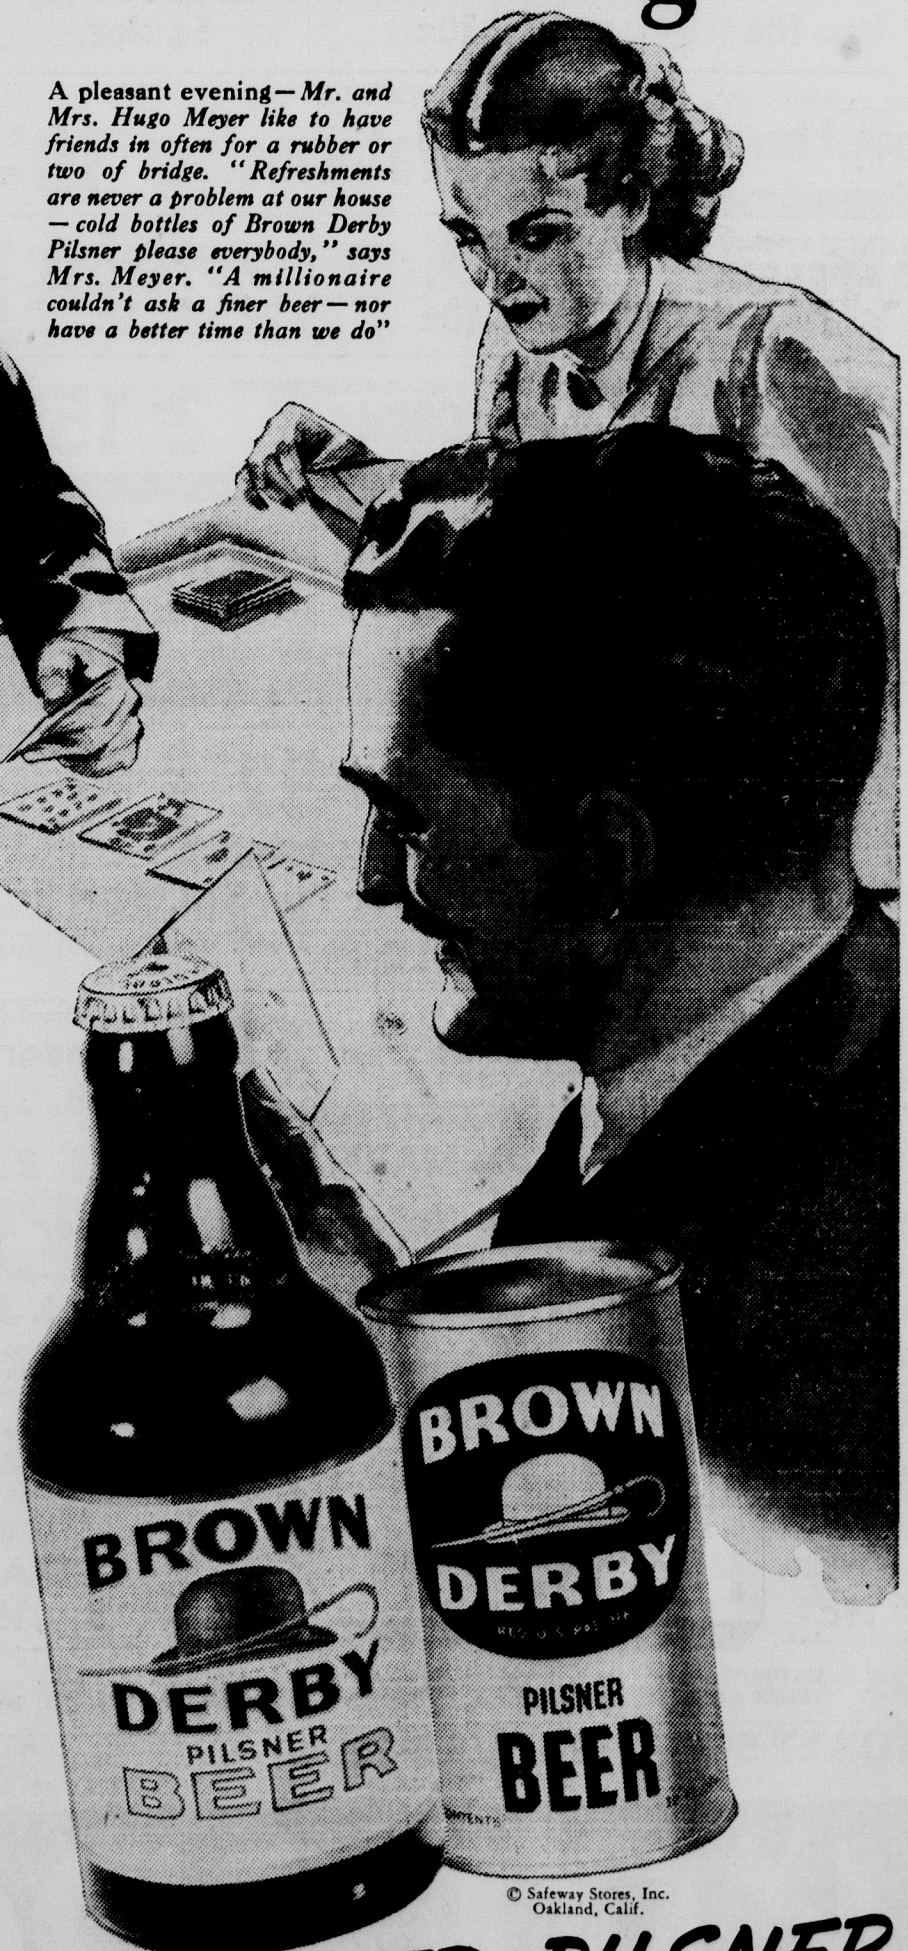

You can get along without riches—but you need "know how" to enjoy life—happy families say. Seek acquaintance with Brown Derby Pilsner, for example.

It is the equal of costly imported brews, yet is easy to afford

Brown Derby, brewed in America, has the goodness of Old World Pilsner, famed as "king of beers." Experts both here and in Europe agree on this!

Brown Derby—like imported Pilsner—is a beer of sparkling clarity, with natural pin-point bubbles... carbonation that lasts while you enjoy your beer. The fine-spun Pilsner collar that Brown Derby wears is deeply creamed.

And when you taste Brown Derby, you taste the unmistakable Pilsner flavor—not sweet, not bitter, just marvelously "in-between." You get the delicate Pilsner bouquet. It's a thrill to realize what Brown Derby saves you—the import cost on Pilsners sent over from Europe!

Fair Enough

NEW YORK — The problem of medical and surgical treatment for the masses is cluttered with undeserved pity for people who have convinced themselves that they can't pay the doctor for easing their pains or saving their lives, but could do so if they tried. The doctors of this country give away more free goods off their shelves than the members of any other profession, including the actors and musicians, who come next. They have their gyps and rotters, their publicity-crazy hams and igloo users, but they are more good for suffering humanity and in critical moments than the members of any other call.

Of course, it will be argued that they should do this because they are in a position to. That is true. But the fact is, nevertheless, that they do give this service, and it is a further fact that society doesn't appreciate the good they do. People over-emphasize their mistakes of judgment or negligence, forgetting that a doctor's mistake is more likely to have fatal or, anyway, dreadful consequences than a mistake of a plumber, a grocer or a journalist. If the work of the plumber springs a leak, if the grocer sends snookies instead of snacks, or if the reporter names W. C. Smith as co-respondent in the divorce story when it should have been W. G. Smith, that means very little pain to anyone's fenders. But let a doctor make a comparable mistake and there is all hell to pay, on top of the fact that maybe he stood on the head of his pay—or most of it, anyway—even if he had done a bang-up job.

There are many phases of the question, but I mean to stick to this one for today's lesson. I am thinking of those who think that $200 is an outrageous price to pay for the removal of an appendix which has developed the menacing nature of a bomb in the patient's innards. The surgeon gets the victim into a hospital as quickly as possible, gives him something to relax him and in a very short time is delving around in his gibles without 50 cents on the line to pay for the laundering of his smock.

So the patient gets well, and when the bad news comes he forgets that feeling as of a litter of porcupines frisking about in his abdomen, forgets the fear he has of his dependent family, and calls the doctor a burglar. Why, he makes only $25 a week, and so, instead of paying the doctor a dollar a week, as he would pay the installment man for the radio or the machine, his policy is to skip it entirely. He forgets, also, that if the surgeon hadn't done his stuff promptly and well, specialized stuff that nobody but a surgeon could have done, his family would be on the town right now.

Many doctors nowadays serve patients in the public clinics who are able to pay reasonable professional rates for their treatment. In this way the doctor is compelled to rob his own family of the just rewards of his work so that other patients may have the same. Patients lie about their income and pretend to be in tatters who ought to be told to decide which they value more, their money or their lives. And the ethics of the profession and sentimental sympathy for the invalid are such that the patient was asked to stand for a risk to prove his inability to pay, that would be a callous outrage and the doctor would be an extortioner.

RELIEF IN CALIFORNIA
Recently this column carried some comment on the relief situation in California. Since then this story has come to us. It offers a possible explanation as to why California is so overrun with folks clamoring for help. A young man from Walnut has for several seasons past gone to California to work as a carpenter with a relative who lives in the Golden State. Fearing that some time his job might give out, leaving him stranded, he registered for WPA work. Since returning to Walnut he has received several letters stating that no work was yet available but holding forth the hope of some future employment. Just recently he received another note stating that there was no work but that the relief agency would be glad to furnish him groceries to the extent of $7.30 per month. All this to an unmarried young man living in Iowa. No wonder California is broke. If she would spend a little more time checking her relief rolls she might be able to keep out of the red. California is just too big for her own good. Atlantic (Iowa) News-Telegram.

The Mailbag

Public opinion, or what somebody in office imagines to be public opinion, is our ruler. If public opinion is active, the politicians and people sit up and take notice. There is a definite need for outspoken talking and thinking on public matters. Honest, intelligent fair discussion of our problems is immensely useful so that every citizen may have his say and contribute to the formation of public opinion. The Journal invites letters to The Mailbag. Please limit communications to 350 words. The editor reserves the right to shorten all letters in excess of that length.

MORE QUESTIONS

To the Editor: Several days ago a letter appeared in the Mailbag asking for an answer to the question as to whether or not there were a city ordinance prohibiting the taking of collections at public meetings in Birch park. I do not know the answer to that, (perhaps I have missed seeing it), but here are a few more odds-and-ends questions that I should like to have answered in this column.

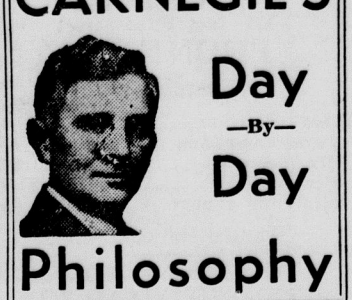

1. Is there any ordinance in Santa Ana prohibiting loitering on the sidewalks, especially in the downtown district? If not, why not? If so, why is it not enforced? (No doubt this is an old crank's query.)

2. Why is it now considered fashionable or "smart" (taken in two senses) not to understand phrases and sentences spoken in a foreign language? (Someone, a certain school teacher, declared this to be true, particularly among younger people.)

3. Why did the motorman of a Pacific Electric car bound for Los Angeles last week increase his speed on approaching the Seventeenth street crossing, instead of decreasing it, in spite of the fact that no small number of persons have been killed at this crossing? In fact, why should not trains be compelled to stop at important intersections just as well as automobiles? Is it not usually the train that does the damage, regardless of who is to blame?

I have thought of other hedge-podge questions, but shall reserve them until the present ones have been answered.

Philosophy

Here is a story of a woman who started a business with a capital of five cents. Her name is Mrs. Ora Snyder.

She was living quietly in Maywood, Ill., with no thought of ever going into business when, all of a sudden, trouble descended. Her husband fell ill, and she had to earn money. But how?

She decided the thing she could do best at all the world was to make candy. She took the white of an egg and sugar and made some candy on the kitchen stove. Now how to sell it?

She looked out the window and saw some children walking along the street. There was a school near, and Mrs. Snyder took her candy and stood near the school and, as the children passed, she told them she had pure candy which would be good for children—and she sold it. The next day she went back again. The word had got around. At the end of the week she had a net profit of $4.15.

Next she decided to try selling her candy in Chicago. What a big undertaking that was! Roaring, thundering, rushing Chicago! Well, she went to Chicago and made an effort to find a sales person to sell the candy she made on her kitchen stove. She tried to interest a peanut vender to sell on a commission basis. No success! Then she reached into her bag and gave him a sample.

The man took on the job of selling the candy. The first day's profit for Mrs. Snyder was $2.15.

After a time she rented a tiny shop—eight feet wide. She still had very little money. But she had a store. She made candy at night; she sold it during the day.

She wanted to give her store personality. One thing she did, for instance, was to have her photograph taken, enlarged and put in the window. Across it she wrote "Thank you," and her signature. This attracted attention. People began to realize there was a real Mrs. Snyder.

Most clerks thanked customers in a dreary monotone. Mrs. Snyder instructed her girls to say "thank you" with a meaning. When a girl applied for a job she asked her to sign her name and address. This was really to get a look at her fingers. If her nails were clean, she passed the first test.

That first white of an egg continued to froth. Mrs. Snyder now has 15 stores in the Loop district of Chicago; one in Oak Park and another in Evanston.

The cup of sugar has grown, too. It is now one-half ton daily. I have eaten some of Mrs. Snyder's candy, and I can heartily recommend it to you.

Girls, if you must earn money, think about Mrs. Snyder's experience. Her first decision was to do the thing she could do best—make candy. Yours may not be that, but there is something in which you can excel. Every normal person has his niche if he will find it.

Resolutions and ordinances calling for two elections, Sept. 11 and 12, were voted by the city council last night. The first election will be on a $63,000 bond issue for improving the water department and $12,000 for fire equipment. The other election will be to vote a levy on the taxable property in the city to provide funds for music, parks and advertising.

Abraham Nasatir, 10, ran into the Vienna Bakery truck and was seriously injured last night. The boy was skating home and skidded into the truck. The boy's mutilated hand had to be amputated when he arrived at Santa Ana hospital.

The automobile run scheduled for Aug. 21 by the chambers of commerce of Orange county cities has been postponed because of washed-out roads in Slauson Junction and Huntington Park. Secretary J. C. Metzgar of the local chamber said today.

Approximately $10,000,000 worth of sugar will be produced from Orange county soil this season. The five big sugar mills—at Anaheim, Huntington Beach, Los Alamitos, Santa Ana Irvine station—all have commenced their 1913 campaigns.

WASHINGTON—As the president travels north through South Carolina, the country is going to be surprised at the manner in which he keeps hands distinctly off the hot senatorial race.

The Roosevelt train is not stopping in the Palmetto state, as originally planned, to purge from political life Senator Cotton Ed Smith.

Cotton Ed, as chairman of the agriculture committee, has caused the New Deal almost more heartaches than George of Georgia or Tydings of Maryland, but luck has played into his hands.

Luck has come in the form of an old personal animosity between Governor Olin Johnston and Ben Sawyer, head of the highway department. These two have been bitter enemies ever since Johnston called out the troops against Sawyer.

Sawyer is a loyal Rooseveltian, but his loyalty won't give him much credit with Governor Johnston. In fact, he will do everything in his power to beat Johnston, even if in doing so he swings victory to Cotton Ed Smith.

At present, however, he is expected to swing his powerful support to a third candidate, Edgar Brown, speaker of the state legislature, a New Dealer. Brown is a brilliant lawyer, a staunch defender of the president's court plan, but not so well known as Governor Johnston, who also supported the court plan and is very friendly to Roosevelt.

Into this complicated melee, the president does not intend to plunge. He does not want to antagonize either Johnston or Brown. The best he can do is to keep out and hope for a run-off election. In this case, and if Cotton Ed is opposed by only one New Dealer, the president will not hesitate to give him his blessing.

Note—The administration, strong for Burnet Maybank, mayor of Charleston, candidate for governor, also does not want to muddy the water for him by coming into the picture at present.

Wine Connoisseur
Homer S. Cummings may not be a whitewash as a New Dealer attorney general, but as a connoisseur of wines—well, that's different.

Slipping tomato juice at a cocktail party, Mrs. Cummings regretfully waived aside a stronger position.

"I'd love to," she explained sadly to her hostess, "but I just can't. My doctor says no. It's too bad, too, because I always did think I knew how to choose fine wines. We still serve them at home."

"Homer is the real wine expert, though. He can tell the name and vintage by the taste. I was telling the French ambassador about it and he proposed that we try Homer out."

"And you know," concluded Mrs. Cummings proudly, "Homer gave the right answer every time. It was just too wonderful."

Harlan Mistril
Here is the inside story of the Harlan county, Ky., trial, which explains why that important test of the Wagner labor act ended in deadlock when the jury, up to a few days before the end, were 11 to 1 for conviction.

It is a story of how a bit of pantomime was used to communicate a message to the jurors when they were being held incommunicado. About a week before the end of the trial, the jurors were loafing on the grass in front of the jury house, killing time under the eyes of de-

Farmers in Africa may some day be able to harness big antelopes to their plows, and have their meat to eat and their hides to make into harness and boots. Domestication of the antelope, a bigger task than most, is suggested by Prof. Caesar R. Boettger of the University of Berlin, as a possible solution to Africa's cattle-pest problem.

The tsetse fly, Africa's most dreaded insect, is making parts of the continent uninhabitable because it carries the germs of a disease deadly to domestic cattle and other livestock of non-African origin. It deprives the natives of their chief form of wealth, and makes farming impossible to white settlers.

The native fauna of Africa are not fully immune to the tsetse-borne disease, gnana, but they are highly resistant to it. They survive when gnana wipes out whole herds of domestic cattle.

Chief obstacle to be overcome in domesticating the eland, or some other member of Africa's rich population of large hoofed animals is their alleged untamability. None of them has ever been domesticated in modern times.

However, Prof. Boettger believes that the difficulty lies not so much in the psychology of the animals as in that of the natives. They have just never taken the trouble to try, he thinks, and he points out the success of the Belgian efforts in the Congo, in making good work-animals out of the supposedly untamable African species of elephant.

Once in the remote history of Africa antelopes were kept in man-tended herds, Prof. Boettger states. Monuments of the oldest dynasties in Egypt show herds of three antelope species kept within enclosures. Antelope-keeping became a lost art, however, long before the end of antiquity in Egypt; perhaps because imported cattle were easier to manage and more profitable.

Immediate success could not be looked for, perhaps. But, probably, our Neolithic ancestors had to work on cattle, horses, and other animals for many generations before they became tractable and really worth their keep.

I'LL TELL YOU....

BY BOB BURNS

You know, it all depends on how you're situated and how you feel whether something strikes you as funny or sad. I suppose that's just another way of saying "What's one man's meat is another man's poison." But when something happens to me, I try to remember that in a year or so, I'll probably look back and laugh about what's troubling me now. It's just like when my Aunt Lujay accepted the man she married.

She met Grandpa Snazzy on the street and said "Snazzy, I've accepted Alfred and I'm going off to live in India."

Grandpa said "India? Say, Lujay, didja know that they have night when we have day and day when we have night?" Aunt Lujay said "Yes, I suppose it'll seem mighty strange at first, but a body can get used to anything in time."
